The Pilgrim's Progress Bible Study Gregory S Bennett, 2020-05-04 John Bunyan wrote The Pilgrim's Progress to give people powerful lessons of how to follow God through life and how to see God's grace and mercy in everything we experience His characters wrestle with the same issues we wrestle with They stray and they conquer and succeed just as we do Bunyan used The Pilgrim's Progress as a way to teach spiritual truth from the experiences and conversations of his characters The Pilgrim's Progress was first published in the year 1678 Bunyan wrote it while in prison using what is called allegory which is a story that can be interpreted to reveal a hidden meaning In this case the hidden meaning behind everything that happens in the book is Bunyan's deep and rich understanding of God's Word the Bible This study is designed to be completed individually or as a discussion group The fun in doing this Bible study in a group is that a new member joins your group John Bunyan himself He enters the room with his views of the Scripture from a 17th century cultural perspective As we make our own observations from the Bible his imagery makes them more colorful As we interpret what the Bible says his voice joins with ours about those same Bible verses And as we work to apply God's Word Bunyan's characters struggle with that same application May God deeply enrich your relationship with him through this Bible study

8-13 - Bible Study Book Lifeway Adults, 2014-05-15 Six session Group Bible Study shows believers that Jesus is the fulfillment of a New Covenant Let Us Go On W. H. Griffith Thomas, 2017-01-02 This book contains the amplification of Lectures and Bible Readings which I have had the privilege of giving first at Wycliffe Hall Oxford 1905 10 then at the Moody Bible Institute Chicago 1911 and subsequently at other Bible Institutes and at several Bible Conferences in America I have no intention or desire to add to the many valuable commentaries available on this Epistle but I have thought it might be profitable to concentrate on one of the main themes if not the main theme of Hebrews the necessity and conditions of spiritual progress As I try to show even though its primary message was to the Christian Jews to whom it was originally addressed its teaching exhortations and warnings are directly applicable to believers today for the purpose of inciting them to possess and enjoy the fullest and highest Christian life With the view of obtaining all possible light on the development of this special topic I have collected and utilized everything I could find on Hebrews and the Bibliography will show the character and extent of my indebtedness A brief outline of the book was given as Bible Readings at the Keswick Convention 1922 and since then the chapters have appeared substantially as they are now in the pages of The Christian to the Editor of which I am indebted for permission to reproduce them in this form They are now sent out revised with the prayer that both writer and readers may go on unto that spiritual ripeness of experience which alone realizes the divine purpose in Christ and fulfils the divine work of grace Letter to Pilgrims Robert Jewett, 1981
