

A VERSE BY VERSE EXPOSITION OF

HEBREWS

CHALLENGES TO BOLD DISCIPLESHIP

Herschel H. Hobbs, pastor emeritus, First Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, is well known by pastors, teachers, and other Bible students. In this exposition, he states that Hebrews is basically a sermon, meaning that the author's purpose in writing is best revealed in his exhortations or applications rather than his arguments. The writer urges his readers to move from where they are to the achievement of the purpose for which God called them. Hobbs believes that the "author's exhortations had nothing to do with apostasy back into Judaism or a loss of redemption. They were challenges to go on in the fulfillment of their divinely given mission—to be a people of evangelism and missions. Thus this book did not speak merely to an ancient people about a problem of their time alone. It speaks to the followers of Christ in every age. It is a call to a world-mission today."

Gavin Ortlund Senior Pastor First Baptist Church of Ojai author Finding the Right Hills to Die On As evangelicals we desire to be biblical we want our doctrine to be rooted in the Bible our lives to be guided by the Bible and our disagreements to be resolved by the Bible. And yet conflicts within our church communities continue to appear and seemingly multiply with time. Interpretations of the Bible and deeply held convictions often put Christians at odds. Encouraging us toward grace in disagreement and firmness in truth Rhyne Putman reflects on how Christians can maintain the biblical call for unity despite having genuine disagreements. Israel, Covenant, Law Kim Papaioannou,2017-10-27 Pauline studies are in a conundrum. The Reformation perspectives championed by great men like Martin Luther and John Calvin have been challenged recently by the rise of the new perspective on Paul. The main point of contention seems to be the place of biblical law in salvation. While the Reformation perspectives based in part on Paul's apparent attacks on law assert that salvation is a free gift unmerited by human works the new perspective suggests the law is an integral part of the work of salvation. It holds that Paul's attacks on the law were focused only on specific aspects of law the so called boundary markers.

This book while having points of contact with both outlooks takes a different view on Paul and the law Building on Paul s self identification as a Christian and Christian views on the covenant it endeavors to give biblical law its due place in the plan of salvation and the life of the believer Hebrews Watson E.
