The Scandal of God's Forgiveness Edmond Smith,2017-09-19 Do we appreciate to the full why the Jewish believers of the early church were amazed because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on Gentiles Why they were amazed that God had granted repentance to Gentiles for eternal life Sacred history is to be seen through enlightened Jewish eyes revealing that Israel was initially the sole beneficiary of God's revelation before Christ For the most part the Gentiles were allowed to walk in their own ways Such was according to divine predestination and the prerogative that God has the freedom to be merciful on whom he desires to be merciful At the coming of Christ to the surprise of Jewish believers Gentiles in numbers became subjects of God's electing love as well Jesus died for the world in the sense that he died for Jew and Gentile And God's freedom in predestination continues to be manifested in the election of both Jew and Gentile with Christ dying specifically for all those elected of God as a wide survey of New Testament texts verify Jesus and the Law Lola S. Richey,2023-01-07 Jesus and the Law returns to the moral teaching of the Sovereign LORD God found in the Old Testament Jesus is the Word of God The teaching of Jesus is the teaching of His Holy Father the Sovereign LORD God of heaven and earth Come discover why the moral teaching of the Law is eternal and everlasting from the Sovereign LORD God and His Son Jesus

A Multi-Intentioned View of the Extent of the Atonement Gary L. Shultz Jr.,2014-01-07 Christians strongly disagree about the extent of the atonement Some believe that the atonement only extends to the elect those whom God chose to save before the foundation of the world Others believe the atonement is unlimited that Jesus died for all people whether they ever believe in him or not Despite the differences in these two traditional understandings they share one thing in common both believe that Jesus died for a single intended purpose But what if God's intentions in the atonement are multiple not single The Bible teaches exactly this that Jesus died both to pay for the sins of all people and to secure the salvation of those God chose to believe in him before time began This book explains and defends a multi intentioned view of the extent of the atonement asserting that this view does the best job of understanding all of what the Bible says about the extent of the atonement is more theologically comprehensive than the traditional views and has the best potential for consensus on who exactly Jesus

Christ died for when he was crucified for our sins Powers of Distinction Nancy Levene,2017-12-06 In this major new work philosopher of religion Nancy Levene examines the elemental character of religion and modernity Deep in their operating systems she argues are dualisms of opposition and identity that cannot be reconciled with the forms of life they ostensibly support These dualisms are dead ends but they conceal a richer position another kind of dualism constitutive of mutual relation This dualism is difficult to distinguish and its concept of relation difficult to commit to It risks contention and even violence But it is also the indispensable support for modernity s most innovative ideals democracy criticism and interpretation In readings from Abraham to the present Levene recovers this richer dualism in its difference from the alternatives other dualisms nondualism multiplication From Abraham we get the biblical call to give up tribal belonging for a promised land of covenantal relation Yet modernity inclusive of this call is also the principle that critiques the promise when it divides self from other us from them Drawing on a long tradition of thinkers and scholars even as she breaks new ground Levene offers here nothing less than a new way of understanding modernity as an ethical claim about our world a philosophy of the powers of distinction to include rather than to divide Beyond the Cross, Sanctification, A Lost Teaching of the Church Pamela Jackson,2007-09-17 When we come to the foot of the Cross and look toward Jesus it is glorious But if we do not spiritually move beyond the Cross then we are living in the shadow of Jesus death and not the fullness of His life Sanctification is one of the basic elements at the very core of Christianity Yet at some point in history it has become a rarely understood term Did you know that Scripture teaches five forms of sanctification With great wisdom and insight Jackson describes the essentiality of sanctification and draws a picture of the Trinity that can be clearly seen She presents a vision of the bondage of sin into which we all fall and offers the method to becoming a true servant of God which we all need Beyond the Cross will open your eyes and change your heart The Edinburgh Review ,1875 Reformed Dogmatics: Christology Geerhardus J.
