Hebron ,2004 Settled in 1704 and incorporated in 1708 Hebron is one of the oldest towns in Connecticut Predominantly a farming community for generations Hebron is also the home of many famous people Hebron contains pictures of Governor John Peters Dr Charles Douglas author Annie Hutchinson Foote poet Susan Pendleton the musically gifted Tennant family Hebron s turn of the century baseball team and the Porters the Hills the Hildings and many other lifelong Hebron residents Hebron was also an industrial center with its own Ams Sterling automobile a busy train depot that connected travelers with New York and Boston silk mills and cottage industries This book is the first pictorial history of Hebron ever published and contains many rare photographs from private collections

Lost Mansions of Mississippi, Volume II Mary Carol Miller,2010-09-14 As preservationist Mary Carol Miller talked with Mississippians about her books on lost mansions and landmarks enthusiasts brought her more stories of great architecture ravaged by time The twenty seven houses included in her new book are among the most memorable of Mississippi s vanished antebellum and Victorian mansions The list ranges from the oldest house in the Natchez region lost in a 1966 fire to a Reconstruction era home that found new life as a school for freed slaves From two Gulf Coast landmarks both lost to Hurricane Katrina to the mysteriously misplaced facades of Hernando s White House and Columbus s Flynnwood these homes mark high points in the broad sweep of Mississippi history and the state s architectural legacy Miller tells the stories of these homes through accounts from the families who built and maintained them These structures run the stylistic gamut from Greek revival to Second Empire and their owners include everyone from Revolutionary era soldiers to governors and scoundrels

Wicomico County Gianni DeVincent Hayes,Andy Nunez,2008 Though it was the second to last Maryland county to be formed Wicomico County has a long rich history celebrated through annual festivals heritage tourism and many local museums and preservation organizations Images of America Wicomico County is yet another way for residents to commemorate this area whose name sprung from Native American words meaning a place where houses are built Heavily influenced by local waterways including the Wicomico and Nanticoke Rivers and the Tangier Sound the heritage of this Delmarva region is preserved in the county seat Salisbury and other unincorporated municipalities including Fruitland Hebron and Whitehaven and the numerous structures listed on the National Register of Historic Places Wicomico County has grown over the last 20 years from about 60 000 people to about 100 000 people and continues to prosper

Madison County Trish Crowe,Doris Lackey,2011 This fertile and beautiful land with its small rivers and valleys and surrounding mountains was designated Madison County in 1792 The county was named for the family of James Madison fourth president of the United States and the father of the Constitution His family ran a mill on the Rapidan River which is now located in the southern section of Madison County Early in the 18th century descendants of English and French colonials settled the southern sections of the county and Quakers and German Lutherans settled the northern sections Madison County s first church Hebron Lutheran was built in 1740 and its public church school was opened

An Untractable Country Craig A. Bauer, 2016 Louisiana's sixth largest city Kenner is often looked upon simply as a suburb of New Orleans and home to Louis Armstrong International Airport An Untractable Country The History of Kenner Louisiana reveals that Kenner has its own unique and dynamic history separate from that of New Orleans This is the first book length narrative of the three hundred year long story of the people and events that transformed an area located along the Mississippi River approximately thirteen miles upriver from the Crescent City from a grassy Indian hunting ground to one of Louisiana's largest municipalities From its earliest times as the colonial settlement of Cannes Br l es through its incarnation as the small antebellum town of Kennerville to its rapid growth as a suburban bedroom community during the second half of the twentieth century the story of Kenner exemplifies life in communities across the state and fills an important void in the greater mosaic of the story of Louisiana Book jacket

Delaware Farming Ed Kee, 2007 Delaware's agricultural traditions have helped define the state for generations Farmers and millers were part of the Breadbasket of the Revolution providing critically important wheat and flour for George Washington's armies In the 19th century Delaware became known as the Peach State shipping fresh peaches by rail to urban markets throughout the eastern United States In 1855 the first cannery on the Delmarva Peninsula started operations in Dover inaugurating a still viable and active agricultural industry Sussex County Delaware is the birthplace of the modern broiler chicken industry beginning with an accidental experiment on Cecile Steele's Ocean View farm in 1923 This agricultural heritage continues 42 percent of Delaware's land mass remains in farms despite significant land development since World War II
