Autobiography of Hector Berlioz ... Hector Berlioz,1884 The Life and Times of Hector Berlioz Jim Whiting,2005-09 French composer Hector Berlioz believed in love at first sight When he was 23 he attended a performance of Shakespeare s play Hamlet and fell head over heels in love with Harriet Smithson an English actress who had a leading role Harriet didn t show any interest in him She ignored his letters When he tried to meet her backstage she ordered the guard to throw him out Berlioz was hurt and angry He wanted revenge He got it by murdering Harriet musically She inspired Symphonie fantastique his most famous work The hero kills his beloved is executed for the crime and the symphony ends with a bizarre dance of ghosts goblins and other monsters In real life Berlioz met Harriet several years later He put on a special concert for her that included a performance of Symphonie fantastique Harriet was impressed Soon she fell in love with him and they were married Did they live happily ever after Hector Berlioz Victor Seroff,1967 A biography of the avant garde French musician who learned to play only the flute guitar and drum but who wrote operas oratorios and symphonies and was well known as a composer critic and conductor The Other Worlds of Hector Berlioz Inge van Rij,2015-02-19 Berlioz frequently explored other worlds in his writings from the imagined exotic enchantments of New Zealand to the rings of Saturn where Beethoven s spirit was said to reside The settings for his musical works are more conservative and his adventurousness has instead been located in his mastery of the orchestra as both orchestrator and conductor Inge van Rij s book takes a new approach to Berlioz s treatment of the orchestra by exploring the relationship between these two forms of control the orchestra as abstract sound and the orchestra as collective labour and instrumental technology Van Rij reveals that the negotiation between worlds characteristic of Berlioz s writings also plays out in his music orchestral technology may be concealed or ostentatiously displayed musical instruments might be industrialised or exoticised and the orchestral musicians themselves move between being a society of distinctive individuals and being a machine played by Berlioz himself Hector Berlioz Hector Berlioz,1973 Memoirs of Hector Berlioz Hector Berlioz,1966 The Conductor Hector Berlioz,2001-01-01
