 Heinrich Heine, 1965 Heine Heinrich Heine, 2018-02-20. Excerpt from Heine Selections From the Reisebilder and Other Prose Works. But the earlier date seems to be correct so far as can be ascertained for the Dusseldorf registers were destroyed by fire early in the century. He was the eldest son of Samson Heine, army clothier, and of his wife Elizabeth, daughter of a Doctor van Geldern of Dusseldorf. Samson Heine settled in Dusseldorf to please his father-in-law and was a cloth merchant who in later life acquired honorary military rank in his capacity of commissary to the army. He seems to have been a man of ordinary attainments who did very little for his son and was regarded by him accordingly with no very strong feelings. He shared Heinrich Heine's admiration for Napoleon and that is almost all we learn of his opinions. The mother, on the other hand, as is so often the case with great men, had much to do with forming her son's mind and inspiring his heart with a love for literature. She was a woman of quick wit and strong mind with a passionate love for music which she transmitted to her son. She spared no pains in his training and was repaid by him with a devoted love. Wayward and moody by nature, he was never such towards her thoughtless and inconsiderate as he was. About the Publisher. Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
