Adamson,1997-09-15 Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels biographies history trade books CD ROMs and videotapes this book helps you locate resources on American history for students Each book presents information in two sections In the first part titles are listed according to grade levels within eras and further organized according to product type The books cover American history from North America Before 1600 and The American Colonies 1600 1774 to The Mid Twentieth Century 1946 1975 and Since 1975 The second section has annotated bibliographies that describe each title and includes publication information and awards won The focus is on books published since 1990 and all have received at least one favorable review Some books with more illustration than text will be valuable for enticing slow or reticent readers An index helps users find resources by author title or biographical subject Light in My Darkness Helen Keller,1994 One of Time s women of the century Helen Keller reveals her mystical side in this best selling spiritual autobiography Writing that her first reading of Emanuel Swedenborg at age fourteen gave her truths that were to my faculties what light color and music are to the eye and ear she explains how Swedenborg s works sustained her throughout her life This new edition includes a foreword by Dorothy Herrmann author of the acclaimed Helen Keller A Life and a new chapter Epilogue My Luminous Universe John Paul II on the Vulnerable Jeffrey Tranzillo,2013 Pope John Paul II was a great defender of truly vulnerable human beings throughout his life affirming their personhood consistently and powerfully In John Paul II on the Vulnerable Jeffrey Tranzillo provides a lucid introduction to John Paul II s philosophical and theological understanding of the human person Unlike other writings on the topic Tranzillo s explicit aim is to highlight an aspect of John Paul s work that has been largely neglected until now He shows convincingly that John Paul s seminal reflections on the human being as a personal agent progressed over time to include human beings at even the most vulnerable stages of development or decline With this advance in thought the pontiff began to declare eloquently that the vulnerable are capable of contributing to and enriching the human community through their activity An engaging overview of John Paul II s life thought and work introduces the book and provides readers with helpful background material It shows that John Paul s interest in and lofty regard for the human person is rooted in his strong Catholic faith and in the extraordinary life experiences that he interpreted in its light Following this is an examination of his principal works on the human person emphasizing their implications for vulnerable human beings as persons and actors Tranzillo considers this theme in the light of selected Christological texts of John Paul II and then reflects on John Paul s portrayal of the vulnerable in his social encyclicals and Evangelium Vitae A final chapter develops the anthropological underpinnings of John Paul's thought on the radically vulnerable and their personal agency

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Jeffrey Tranzillo received his Ph.D. in systematic theology from the Catholic University of America and has taught at both the undergraduate and graduate levels

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK This is a masterful work one of the very best books I have read exploring the thought of John Paul II

Jeffrey Tranzillo provides a compelling and theologically rich account of John Paul II's Christian anthropology showing how it grounds his understanding of the inalienable dignity of every human being particularly the vulnerable

Elements of John Paul II's papacy may fade with time but this extraordinary book keeps the pope's enduring philosophical and theological insights glowingly alive

Thomas G. Guarino Professor of Systematic Theology Seton Hall University
