Edwin Jurriëns, 2009-01-01 From Monologue to Dialogue Radio and Reform in Indonesia analyses how radio journalism since the late 1990s has been shaped by and contributed to Reformasi or the ambition of democratizing Indonesian politics economy and society The book examines ideas and practices such as independent journalism peace journalism meta journalism virtual interactivity talk back radio and community radio which have all been designed to renew audience interest in media and societal affairs It pays special attention to radio programmes that enable hosts experts listeners and other participants to discuss and negotiate the very rules and boundaries of Indonesia s newly acquired media freedom The author argues that these contemporary programmes provide dialogic alternatives to the official New Order discourse dominated by monologism
