AN ARTIST FOR PRESIDENT SUSANNA BIXBY DAKIN, 2012-03-30 In 1983 Susanna Dakin emerged from the sea having been tested by the waters for her candidacy as An Artist for President A seminal performance art piece it took Dakin from the art studio to the bully pulpit as she set out to prove that the nation is an artwork and we the people are the artists This insightful and at times humorous autobiography of the campaign travels with Dakin across the country Along the way she discovers the challenges of politics and a country hungry for change The Kennedy Assassination Tapes Max Holland, 2004-09-14 A major work of documentary history the brilliantly edited and annotated transcripts most of them never before published of the presidential conversations of Lyndon B Johnson regarding the Kennedy assassination and its aftermath The transition from John F Kennedy to Johnson was arguably the most wrenching and ultimately one of the most bitter in the nation's history As Johnson himself said later I took the oath I became president But for millions of Americans I was still illegitimate a naked man with no presidential covering a pretender to the throne The whole thing was almost unbearable In this book Max Holland a leading authority on the assassination and longtime Washington journalist presents the momentous telephone calls President Johnson made and received as he sought to stabilize the country and keep the government functioning in the wake of November 22 1963 The transcripts begin on the day of the assassination and reveal the often chaotic activity behind the scenes as a nation in shock struggled to come to terms with the momentous events The transcripts illuminate Johnson's relationship with Robert F Kennedy which flared instantly into animosity the genuine warmth of his dealings with Jacqueline Kennedy his contact with the FBI and CIA directors and the advice he sought from friends and mentors as he wrestled with the painful transition We eavesdrop on all the conversations including those with leading journalists that persuaded Johnson to abandon his initial plan to let Texas authorities investigate the assassination Instead we observe how he abruptly established a federal commission headed by a very reluctant chief justice of the Supreme Court Earl Warren We also learn how Johnson cajoled and drafted other prominent men among them Senator Richard Russell who detested Warren Allen Dulles John McCloy and Gerald Ford into serving We see a sudden president under unimaginable pressure contending with media frenzy and speculation on a worldwide scale We witness the flow of inaccurate information some of it from J Edgar Hoover amid rumors and theories about foreign involvement And we glimpse Johnson addressing the mounting criticism of the Warren Commission after it released its still controversial report in September 1964 The conversations rendered here are nearly verbatim and have never been explained so thoroughly No passages have been deleted except when they veered from the subject Brought together with Holland s commentaries they make riveting hugely revelatory reading Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 Twins in Her Womb: Sir President, Please be Gentle Heap Heap, It was supposed to be a routine test tube baby situation but suddenly everything went wrong The problem was Master Luke Crawford the heir to the Crawford empire mature and composed cold and domineering Once he put his mind to it there was nothing in the world he could not do She had thought that they would go their completely separate ways after she delivered the children Five years later however the man dragged two adorable babies along and waited for her in front of her dorms despite everyone watching Mr Crawford was cold and emotionless in front of everyone else but in front of her
