United States. Department of Justice,1990 Performance Measures of Effectiveness United States. Office of National Drug Control Policy,1999 Our Right to Drugs Thomas Szasz,1996-04-01 In Our Right to Drugs Szasz shows how the present drug war started at the beginning of this century when the US government first assumed the task of protecting people from patent medicines By the end of World War I the free market in drugs was but a dim memory Instead of dwelling on the familiar impracticality and unfairness of drug laws Szasz demonstrates the deleterious effects of prescription laws which place people under lifelong medical supervision The result is that most Americans today prefer a coercive and corrupt command drug economy to a free market in drugs Szasz stresses the consequences of the fateful transformation of the central aim of US drug prohibitions from protecting the public from being fooled by mis branded drugs to protecting them from harming themselves by self medication He emphasises that a free society cannot endure if the state treats adults as if they were truant children and if its citizens reject the values of self discipline and personal responsibility After discussing the racial aspects of drug prohibition eg drug enforcers are far more likely to accost blacks than whites Szasz suggests a connection between drug prohibition and the personal dread of the availability of an easy and pleasurable way to commit suicide National Conference on Drug Abuse Prevention Research, 1996 Susan L. David,2000-07 Proceedings of a conference sponsored by the Nat Institutes of Health in Wash DC Sep 19 20 1996 Research and community practitioners worked together to review the research on drug abuse prevention explored its ramifications for individuals families and communities and developed recommendations for future collaborations and applications of this knowledge in settings across the country Keynote addresses were given by Donna E Shalala Ph D Sec of Health and Human Services and Gen Barry Barry R McCaffrey Dir of the Office of National Drug Control Policy Includes a list of conference speakers and panel and work group participants Flyover ,1994 National Conference on Drug Abuse Prevention Research : Presentations, Papers, and Recommendations ,1998 Effectiveness of the National Youth Anti-Drug Media Campaign United States.
