Coming Home Malcolm Brown, Graham Tomlin, 2020-10-30 Everyone has an interest in housing because we all live in some kind of home While there has been plenty of theological reflection on the natural environment there has been little on the built environment or on a theology of housing Addressing the urgent problems of housing inequality and affordability Coming Home proposes a practical and biblical theology of housing provision as an essential part of community building It explores the purpose of home and housing today housing and human flourishing shared living and neighbourliness It asks how and why the church should contribute to local and national housing policy and thus to building community life and offers case studies in community action Contributors include Samuel Wells Timothy Gorringer Niamh Colbrook Selina Stone Angus Ritchie and Shermana Fletcher of the Centre for Theology and Community Collectively they bring theology and practice together

Heaven's Kitchen Courtney Bender, 2011-04-15 How do people practice religion in their everyday lives How do our daily encounters with people who hold different religious beliefs shape the way we understand our own moral and spiritual selves In Heaven's Kitchen Courtney Bender takes a highly original approach to answering these questions For more than a year she worked in New York City as a volunteer for a nonprofit nonreligious organization called God's Love We Deliver helping to prepare home cooked meals for people with AIDS Paying close attention to what was said and not said Bender traces how the volunteers gave voice to their moral positions and religious values She also examines how they invested their conversations and mundane activities such as cooking with personal meaning that in turn affected how they saw their own spiritual lives Filled with vibrant storytelling and rich theoretical insights Heaven s Kitchen shows faith as a living practice reshaping our understanding of the role of religion in contemporary American life Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1945 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs United States.
