Heaven My Blanket Earth My Pillow Poems By Yang Wanli:

Heaven My Blanket, Earth My Pillow Wanli Yang, 2004 Yang Wan Li 1127 1206 is one of China's four masters of Southern Song poetry. These poems were written at what could be seen as a low point in Song history: an invasion by the Jurchens had forced the Song to flee to the southern city of Hangchow. But they created at Hangchow a refuge of elegant solitude from which they gazed longingly toward the north and in this quiet setting they were able to enjoy the beauties of nature. Many of the poems are perfect verbalizations of the magnificent landscape paintings of the Song painters: misty, ethereal and luminous. The poetry however also holds the annoyances of overwork, aching feet, creaking bones and the pleasures of wine, filling it with humanity and a zest for living. The Circumference of Home Kurt Hoelting, 2010-04-13 This much is clear to me: If I can't change my own life in response to the greatest challenge now facing our human family, who can? And if I won't make the effort to try, why should anyone else? So I've decided to start at home and begin with myself. The question is no longer whether I must respond. The question is whether I can turn my response into an adventure. After realizing the gaping hole between his convictions about climate change and his own carbon footprint, Kurt Hoelting embarked on a yearlong experiment to rediscover the heart of his own home. He traded his car and jet travel for a kayak, a bicycle and his own two feet, traveling a radius of 100 kilometers from his home in Puget Sound. This circumference of home proved more than enough. Part quest and part guidebook for change, Hoelting's journey is an inspiring reminder that what we need really is close at hand and that the possibility for adventure lies around every bend.

Harmony Garden J. D. Schmidt, 2013-12-16 This is the first complete study of China's most popular eighteenth-century poet in any Western language. The work consists of a detailed biography, a study of Yuan's revolutionary reinterpretation of Chinese literary theory and an analysis of his many contributions to the more original genres of Qing dynasty (1644-1911) poetry, such as narrative, historical, didactic, eccentric and nature verse. The study is concluded by a generous and representative sampling of Yuan's poetry in translation, the first to do justice to the wide variety and richness of his oeuvre. Although many shorter poems are selected, this is the first translation to include his outstanding longer poetry. Harmony Garden will completely revise current attitudes in the West concerning classical Chinese literature during the eighteenth century, a period that was long viewed as one of decline but now appears to equal the golden ages of antiquity.

The Mandate of Heaven S. J. Marshall, S. J. Marshall, 2015-12-14 The Mandate of Heaven was originally given to King Wen in the 11th century BC. King Wen is credited with founding the Zhou dynasty after he received the Mandate from Heaven to attack and overthrow the Shang dynasty. King Wen is also credited with creating the ancient oracle known as the Yijing or Book of Changes. This book validates King Wen's association with the Changes. It uncovers in the Changes a record of a total solar eclipse that was witnessed at King Wen's capital of Feng by his son King Wu shortly after King Wen had died, before he had a chance to launch the full invasion The sense of this eclipse as an actual event has been overlooked for three millennia It provides an account of the events surrounding the conquest of the Shang and founding of the Zhou dynasty that has never been told It shows how the earliest layer of the Book of Changes the Zhouyi has preserved a hidden history of the Conquest

Dreaming the Southern Song Landscape Valérie Malenfer Ortiz, 2024-03-25 Establishing a new approach to reading Chinese landscape painting this work centers around an early key example of scholarly painting viz Dream Journey on the Xiao and Xiang Rivers late 12th century The author restores the status of Dream Journey as a cultural icon for Confucians an object of contemplation for aesthetes an imaginary dream journey for poets and an incentive to cultivate one's moral intentions for both Buddhist monks and lay scholars Also it is convincingly argued that scholarly painting originates in the Southern Song 1127-1279 and not as is commonly thought in the Yuan Dynasty 1279-1368

Poetry and Painting in Song China Alfreda Murck, 2020-10-26 Throughout the history of imperial China the educated elite used various means to criticize government policies and actions During the Song dynasty 960-1278 some members of this elite found an elegant and subtle means of dissent landscape painting By examining literary archetypes the titles of paintings contemporary inscriptions and the historical context Alfreda Murck shows that certain paintings expressed strong political opinions some transparent others deliberately concealed She argues that the coding of messages in seemingly innocuous paintings was an important factor in the growing respect for painting among the educated elite and that the capacity of painting's systems of reference to allow scholars to express dissent with impunity contributed to the art's vitality and longevity
