Breath James Nestor, 2020-05-26 A New York Times Bestseller A Washington Post Notable Nonfiction Book of 2020 Named a Best Book of 2020 by NPR A fascinating scientific cultural spiritual and evolutionary history of the way humans breathe and how we ve all been doing it wrong for a long long time Elizabeth Gilbert author of Big Magic and Eat Pray Love No matter what you eat how much you exercise how skinny or young or wise you are none of it matters if you re not breathing properly There is nothing more essential to our health and well being than breathing take air in let it out repeat twenty five thousand times a day Yet as a species humans have lost the ability to breathe correctly with grave consequences Journalist James Nestor travels the world to figure out what went wrong and how to fix it The answers aren t found in pulmonology labs as we might expect but in the muddy digs of ancient burial sites secret Soviet facilities New Jersey choir schools and the smoggy streets of S o Paulo Nestor tracks down men and women exploring the hidden science behind ancient breathing practices like Pranayama Sudarshan Kriya and Tummo and teams up with pulmonary tinkerers to scientifically test long held beliefs about how we breathe Modern research is showing us that making even slight adjustments to the way we inhale and exhale can jump start athletic performance rejuvenate internal organs halt snoring asthma and autoimmune disease and even straighten scoliotic spines None of this should be possible and yet it is Drawing on thousands of years of medical texts and recent cutting edge studies in pulmonology psychology biochemistry and human physiology Breath turns the conventional wisdom of what we thought we knew about our most basic biological function on its head You will never breathe the same again WTF! Frank B. Thompson, III, 2014-12-24 What would America look like if the liberals ultimately triumph say by the year 2050 WTF This is a Liberal Utopia a satire on liberalism all the unintended consequences of this heart felt way of looking at the world around oneself usually in the cloistered halls of academia some government agency

some left wing nonprofit activist organization and or congress A really fantabulous glimpse at what the future holds when these magnificent starry eyed wonders finally come out on top By 2050 America will have gone through some slight changes thus resulting in many really noteworthy phenomena For one there is no longer any need for elections there will be a Forever President whose last name could be Castro Furthermore odds are welfare moms will have largely replaced small business enterprises with their monthly government stipends most Americans will as likely as not have never worked because it is distinctly possible that there won t be any save for those shovel ready jobs the Democrats will in all likelihood keep bringing up Gaia Mother Earth will have probably been rescued from the threatening effects of Global Warming Global Cooling and Climate Change by turning to more agrarian economy where maize is likely to be the cornerstone For those lucky enough to own wheeled transportation they will likely be driving around in either battery powered bubble cars made of styrofoam or Latino lowriders which might look a lot like sparklers driving along the potholed highways of tomorrow The English language will have been replaced by local cultural colloquialisms with phonetics playing the principle role for making up words and phrases and writing them out All this and more will be seen through the eyes of one of those liberal visionaries an Ivy League English Professor whose name is Felix Schwartz the narrator the author and the reader A glimpse into our wondrous future and what awaits us all when the magnificent munificents are finally given the reins to take America down that Yellow Brick Road to their utopian imaginary World of OZ WTF This is a Liberal Utopia      The Missionary William Carmichael, David Lambert, 2009-03-01 David Eller is an American missionary in Venezuela married to missionary nurse Christie Together they rescue homeless children in Caracas But for David that isn t enough The supply of homeless children is endless because of massive poverty and the oppressive policies of the Venezuelan government led by the Hugo Chavez like Armando Guzman In a moment of anger David publicly rails against the government unaware that someone dangerous might be listening a revolutionary looking for recruits David falls into an unimaginable nightmare of espionage ending in a desperate life or death gamble to flee the country with his wife and son with all the resources of a corrupt dictatorship at their heels
