MOSAIC AUTHORSHIP CONTROVERSY Edward D. Andrews, 2019-02-17 Who wrote the first five books of the Bible Was it Moses or was it others centuries later If Moses wrote the first five books of the Bible then how was his own death and burial written in Deuteronomy Chapter 34 Many mainstream Bible scholars argue that Moses could not have written the Pentateuch since he likely existed many centuries earlier than the development of the Hebrew language When was the origin of the Hebrew language Popular scholarship says that if Moses had written the Pentateuch he would have written in the Egyptian language not the Hebrew Moreover most of the Israelites and other people of the sixteenth century B C E were illiterate so who could have written the Torah and for whom would it be written because the people of that period did not read Finally analysis of the first five books demonstrates multiple authors not just one which explains the many discrepancies Multiple authors also explain the many cases of telling of the same story twice making the same events appear to happen more than once The modern mainstream scholarship would argue that within the Pentateuch we see such things as preferences for certain words differences in vocabulary reoccurring expressions in Deuteronomy that are not found in Genesis Exodus Leviticus and Numbers all evidence for their case for multiple authors What does the evidence say What does archaeology linguistic analysis historical studies textual analysis and insights from Egyptologists tell us Again who wrote the first five books of the Bible Was it Moses or was it others centuries later Andrews offers his readers an objective view of the evidence
