Hebrew Maps Of The Holy Land:

Portraying the Land Rehav Rubin, 2018-05-22 The book presents and discusses a large corpus of Jewish maps of the Holy Land that were drawn by Jewish scholars from the 11th to the 20th century and thus fills a significant lacuna both in the history of cartography and in Jewish studies The maps depict the biblical borders of the Holy Land the allotments of the tribes and the forty years of wanderings in the desert Most of these maps are in Hebrew although there are several in Yiddish Ladino and in European languages The book focuses on four aspects it presents an up to date corpus of known maps of various types and genres it suggests a classification of these maps according to their source shape and content it presents and analyses the main topics that were depicted in the maps and it puts the maps in their historical and cultural contexts both within the Jewish world and the sphere of European cartography of their time The book is an innovative contribution to the fields of history of cartography and Jewish studies It is written for both professional readers and the general public The Hebrew edition 2014 won the Izhak Ben Zvi Prize

Holy Land in Maps Ariel Tishby, 2001 maps of the Holy Land from a 6th century mosaic from Jordan to maps of the recent past Jacket

Holy Land in Maps Muze'on Yiśra'el (Jerusalem), 2001 The map of the Holy Land reflects the religious and political outlook as well as the scientific and aesthetic sensibilities of the mapmakers and the society in which they lived Thus this 2001 Israel Museum exhibition the first to bring together maps of the Holy Land from antiquity up until modern times traced not only the history of cartography but also the development of religious scientific and artistic thought over the last two millennia The accompanying publication presents cartographic depictions by Jewish Christian and Muslim pilgrims scholars clergymen and scientists These maps are remarkable not only for the religious and geopolitical world they draw but also for their artistry and beauty

Sacred Words and Worlds Zur Shalev, 2011-10-14 In early modern Europe fundamental geographical as well as religious certainties became unstable At the intersection of the two stood sacred geography This book examines the scope and content of this early modern scholarly genre which engaged many of Europe's leading scholars On the one hand geographia sacra is analyzed in the context of antiquarian scholarship Equipped with newly developed sophisticated tools scholars compiled measured and meticulously documented biblical and ecclesiastical space On the other hand this study argues geographia sacra was never detached from present concerns and took part in confessional debates over scriptural authority papal legitimacy and the authenticity of liturgy Hence today's interest in the notions of sacred space and spatiality had a lively controversial and crucial precedent in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries

Maps and Travel in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Period Ingrid Baumgärtner, Nirit Ben-Aryeh Debby, Katrin Kogman-Appel, 2019-03-04 The volume discusses the world as it was known in the Medieval and Early Modern periods focusing on projects concerned with mapping as a conceptual and artistic practice with visual representations of space and with destinations of real and fictive travel Maps were often taken as straightforward objective configurations However they expose deeply subjective frameworks with social political and economic significance Travel narratives whether illustrated or not can address similar frameworks Whereas travelled space is often adventurous and speaking of hardship strange encounters and danger city portraits tell a tale of civilized life and civic pride The book seeks to address the multiple ways in which maps and travel literature conceive of the world communicate a Weltbild depict space and or define knowledge The volume challenges academic boundaries in the study of cartography by exploring the links between mapmaking and artistic practices The contributions discuss individual mapmakers authors of travelogues mapmaking as an artistic practice the relationship between travel literature and mapmaking illustration in travel literature and imagination in depictions of newly explored worlds Jewish Studies

Between the Disciplines / Judaistik zwischen den Disziplinen Klaus Herrmann, Margarete Schlüter, Giuseppe Veltri, 2003-06-01 Peter Sch fer who celebrated his 60th birthday on 29 June 2003 has left a decidedly firm imprint on the young discipline Jewish Studies in Germany which could only be set up at a German university after the Shoah For someone directing a small academic institution he has managed during his academic career to guide and influence a strikingly large number of students in their scholarly pursuits in the field The collected essays of this volume encompass quite a variety of topics whereby the focal points in Peter Sch fer s own research are not difficult to recognize in the themes chosen by his former students mysticism and magic are most conspicuous followed by Rabbinic Judaism and the studies on the Middle Ages and the Early Modern and Modern Periods Of note is also the fact that the methodological approaches of these contributions are no less manifold than their themes Part of the contributions of this book were submitted in English and all the German language texts have an English summary or abstract The New Moody Atlas of the Bible Barry Beitzel, 2009-09-23 The Moody Atlas of Bible Lands integrates the geography of Bible lands with the teachings of the Bible Its one hundred thousand words provide useful commentary for more than ninety detailed maps of Palestine the Mediterranean the Near East the Sinai and Turkey Learn of God s protection and guidance by following Israel s forty year sojourn in the wilderness Appreciate the results of the Great Commission to teach all nations by seeing the scope of Paul s three missionary journeys Dr Barry Beitzel has blended the topographical and historical in multi colored maps that accurately reflect evangelical Christianity Pages of timeless information aid in sermon preparation and in personal Bible study The Moody Atlas of Bible Lands is an invaluable asset to Sunday school teachers and to seminary and Bible college students Text and unique maps make this one of the most useful and accurate atlases available today Cartography in Antiquity and the Middle Ages, 2008-08-31 In scope this book matches The History of Cartography vol 1 1987 edited by Brian Harley and David Woodward Now twenty years after the appearance of that seminal work classicists and medievalists from Europe and North America highlight distill and reflect on the remarkably productive progress made since in many different areas of the study of maps The interaction between experts on antiquity and on the Middle Ages evident in the thirteen contributions offers a guide to the future and illustrates close

Tricia Cusack, 2017-07-05. The water's edge, whether shore or riverbank, is a marginal territory that becomes invested with layers of meaning. The essays in this collection present intriguing perspectives on how the water's edge has been imagined and represented in different places at various times and how this process contributed to the formation of social identities. Art and Identity at the Water's Edge focuses upon national coastlines and maritime heritage on rivers and seashore as regions of liminality and sites of conflicting identities and on the edge as a tourist setting. Such themes are related to diverse forms of art, including painting, architecture, maps, photography, and film. Topics range from the South African seaside resort of Durban to the French Riviera. The essays explore successive ideological mappings of the Jordan River and how Czech cubist architecture and painting shaped a new nationalist reading of the Vltava riverbanks. They examine post-Hurricane Katrina New Orleans as a filmic spectacle that questions assumptions about American identity and the coast depicted as a site of patriotism in nineteenth-century British painting. The collection demonstrates how waterside structures such as maritime museums and lighthouses and visual images of the water's edge have contributed to the construction of cultural and national identities.
