Lebanon Adrift Samir Khalaf,2012-05-28 Lebanon today is at a fateful crossroads in its eventful socio cultural and political history Imperiled by unsettling transformations from postwar reconstruction and rehabilitation to the forces of postmodernity and globalism it remains adrift In this landmark study Samir Khalaf explores how ordinary citizens burdened by the consequences of an ugly and unfinished war persisting regional rivalries mounting economic deprivation and diminishing prospects for well being find meaning and coherence in a society that has not only lost its moorings and direction but also its sense of control Khalaf argues that a mood of lethargy and indifference prevails with a growing tendency for the Lebanese to seek refuge in religiosity communalism and cloistered spatial identities or temporary relief in the allure of mass consumerism Lebanon Paul Doyle,2023-04-17 This new thoroughly updated third edition of Bradt s Lebanon remains the only English language guide dedicated to the smallest country on the Asian continent Comprehensively updated throughout to reflect recent economic political and social changes it includes revised and new listings for hotels restaurants and what to see and do catering for all types of travellers and budgets Although only half the size of Wales Lebanon offers extraordinary diversity Some of the world s oldest human settlements including the Phoenician ports of Tyre and Byblos two of Lebanon s five World Heritage sites sit alongside modern Beirut The absorbing capital is popular for its world renowned cuisine eclectic nightlife mosaic of peoples and kaleidoscope of religions In Lebanon s second city Tripoli busy medieval souks are watched over by a vast Crusader castle Nearby snow capped mountains and the lush Qadisha Valley with its snaking river and waterfalls provide entertainment for skiers and hikers the latter also well served by the Lebanon Mountain Trail which runs virtually the length of the country Three hundred days of sunshine per year makes Lebanon a go anytime destination with the Mediterranean coastline particularly drawing sun seekers and watersports enthusiasts Wildlife lovers can enjoy Shouf Biosphere Reserve with its famed cedar trees the national emblem and the Aammiq Wetlands while Lebanon has become a major destination for religious tourism and vinophiles can visit numerous Bekaa Valley wineries of international repute Bradt s Lebanon offers detailed coverage of areas ignored by other guides particularly the country s south as well as more extensive cultural and practical information New for this edition are specialist features on aspects of Lebanese cultural life additional background information updates on work to rebuild Beirut following the 2020 explosion extended and revised coverage of the Aammiq Wetlands new and updated maps and new visitor attractions including the MIM mineral museum and the Middle East s first chocolate museum both in Beirut With a comprehensive language appendix covering both Arabic and French detailed historical and religious background that helps visitors travel with awareness and sensitivity and in depth travel information Bradt's Lebanon is an indispensable practical companion to visiting this excitingly varied country

Syria & Lebanon Handbook Ivan Mannheim, 2001 Both Syria and Lebanon still labour under their media stereotypes as places of religious fanaticism terrorism and intractable conflict True the region has had more than its fair share of wars atrocities and suffering and the Arab Israeli conflict continues to cast its tragic shadow Indeed this is a conflict which goes right back to the dawn of history resonating through the Old Testament stories of the origins of the Israelites and the Exodus when Moses led his people from exile in Egypt back to the Promised Land But these same twists of religion history and geography are also what makes this such a fascinating region to visit Forget your preconceptions and go see for yourself the day to day reality on the ground is a world away from the media stereotypes Rather you will find yourself stepping into a wonderful world of breathtakingly beautiful and well preserved historic monuments stunning scenery delicious food and diverse peoples
