Authors and the World Rebecca Braun, 2022-07-14 Authors and the World traces how four core modes of authorship have developed and inflect one another in modern Germany through a series of twenty different case studies including the work of Thomas Mann G nter Grass Anna Seghers Walter H llerer Felicitas Hoppe and Katja Petrowskaja and original interview material with contemporary writers Ulrike Draesner Olga Martynova and Ulrike Almut Sandig Modes of authorship are attitudes taken towards being an author that can be seen both in what an individual author does and in how a particular literary tradition or trend is perceived and mediated by others both within and beyond Pierre Bourdieu s literary field Consequently they deliberately straddle questions of literary production and reception Rebecca Braun sets out how the commemorative celebratory utopian and satirical modes interact with one another to produce a number of models of authorship that carry either foundational or otherwise normative force for society In varying combinations and with deep roots in 19th and early 20th century practices the four modes of authorship create a remarkably and at times troublingly stable German literature network that to a large degree still determines the way contemporary German speaking authors enact their cultural significance in their writing engage with their local circumstances and are more broadly received around the world Authors and the World provides not just a radically new approach to German literary history but a thoroughly new paradigm for thinking about literary authorship

The Object as a Process Stephan

Schmidt-Wulffen, German A. Duarte, 2022-12-02 How does artistic practice lead to the production of knowledge How does in turn artistic knowledge relate to its material base How does contingent materiality guide the artist towards finding form and developing a statement This volume is dedicated to the object as a process in order to offer new insights into the ways the object broadly construed comprising digital and other non classical objects becomes an active element in artistic practice

Attention Equals Life Andrew Epstein, 2016-06-10 Attention Equals Life examines why a quest to pay attention to daily life has increasingly become a central feature of both contemporary American poetry and the wider culture of which it is a part

"Becoming" a Professional Lesley Scanlon, 2011-06-27 This book is founded on the idea that becoming is the most useful defining concept for a new professional class whose members understand that development in their working lives is an open ended lifelong process of refinement and learning In a world where being a professional is an increasingly indistinct notion and where better education and technology are challenging professional norms it is imperative that we no longer think in terms of an exclusive Anglo American knowledge rich class of workers Exploring the implications of this insight for professions including nursing teaching social work engineering and the clergy this volume aims to encourage informed debate on what it means to be a professional in this globalised 21st century The book argues that becoming a professional is a lifelong process in which individual professional identities are constructed through formal education workplace interactions and popular culture The book advocates the ongoingness of developing a professional self throughout one s professional life What emerges is a concept of becoming a professional different from the isolated rugged individualistic approach to traditional professional practice as represented in popular culture It is a book for the reflective professional

Actological Readings in Continental Philosophy Malcolm Torry, 2023-01-12 Actological Readings in Continental Philosophy is what it says it is The book asks how we might understand the writings of a number of continental philosophers actologically that is with reality understood as action in changing patterns rather than as beings that change It also asks how the different continental philosophies might enable us to develop an actology an understanding of reality as action in changing patterns The philosophers whom we study are Immanuel Kant Friedrich Nietzsche Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas Gilles Deleuze Hans Georg Gadamer Maurice Merleau Ponty Gaston Bachelard Michel Foucault and Michel Serres A whole new way of understanding reality casts new light on their philosophies and raises and answers some significant new questions

The Pushing-Hands of Translation and its Theory Douglas Robinson, 2016-05-12 This book presents an East West dialogue of leading translation scholars responding to and developing Martha Cheung s pushing hands method of translation studies Pushing hands was an idea Martha began exploring in the last four years of her life and only had time to publish at article length in 2012 The concept of pushing hands suggests a promising line of inquiry into the problem of conflict in translation Pushing hands opens a new vista for translation scholars to understand and explain how to develop an awareness of non confrontational alternative ways to handle translation problems or problems related to translation activities that are likely to give rise to tension and conflict The book is a timely contribution to celebrate Martha's work and also to move the conversation forward Despite being somewhat tentative and experimental it probes into how to enable and develop dynamic interaction between and reciprocal determinism of different hands involved in the process of translation

International Handbook of Research in Professional and Practice-based Learning Stephen Billett, Christian Harteis, Hans Gruber, 2014-07-15 The International Handbook of Research in Professional and Practice based Learning discusses what constitutes professionalism examines the concepts and practices of professional and practice based learning including associated research traditions and educational provisions It also explores professional learning in institutions of higher and vocational education as well the practice settings where professionals work and learn focusing on both initial and ongoing development and how that learning is assessed The Handbook features research from expert contributors in education studies of the professions and accounts of research methodologies from a range of informing disciplines It is organized in two parts The first part sets out conceptions of professionalism at work how professions work and learning can be understood and examines the kinds of institutional practices organized for developing occupational capacities The second part focuses on procedural issues associated with learning for and through professional practice and how assessment of professional capacities might progress The key premise of this Handbook is that during both initial and ongoing professional development individual learning processes are influenced and shaped through their professional environment and practices Moreover in turn the practice and processes of learning through practice are shaped by their development all of which are required to be understood through a range of research orientations methods and findings This Handbook will appeal to academics working in fields of professional practice including those who are concerned about developing these capacities in their students In addition students and research students will also find this Handbook a key reference resource to the field

Deconstruction and the Work of Art Martta Heikkilä, 2021-07-29 The contemporary idea of the work of art is paradoxically both widely used and often unexamined Therefore we must re evaluate the concept before we can understand what the deconstruction of aesthetics means for thinkers like Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy and Philippe Lacoue Labarthe By examining their analyses of works of visual art and contextualizing their thinking on the matter Martta Heikkilä asserts that the implications of the work of art and the aesthetic apply not only to philosophical questions but also to a broader area Instead of the totality represented by the historical concept of Art poststructuralist thinkers introduce the idea of the radical multiplicity of art and its works From this notion arises the fundamental issue in Derrida and the poststructuralist tradition how can we speak philosophically of art which always exists as singular instances as works In Deconstruction and the Work of Art Visual Arts and Their Critique in Contemporary French Thought Heikkilä shows that the deconstructionist notions of art are still influential in the discourses of contemporary art in which artworks proliferate and the concept of work is open ended and expanding This book offers an introduction to the deconstructionist theory of art and brings new perspectives to the complex undecidable relation between philosophy and art      The Digital Logic of Death Steven Pustay, 2021-01-14 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched In The Digital Logic of Death Steven Pustay skillfully makes visible the immensely important but often overlooked role that moving images play in shaping our understanding of mortality This relationship he argues is made all the more urgent by the technologies of the digital age which have profoundly altered our ability to represent and contemplate death through moving images resulting in an entirely new cultural logic of death To draw out this new logic Pustay presents accessible readings of otherwise dense and difficult philosophical approaches to death such as those found in existentialism psychoanalysis and critical theory by reading them through the lens of contemporary media From art house films like Irrversible and The Fountain to blockbusters like the Matrix trilogy from television commercials for M M s to pay cable dramas like The Sopranos and Breaking Bad from first person shooters like Bioshock to indie games like LIMBO Pustay shows how moving images have shifted our understanding of death in general and our recognition of our own finiteness in particular
