The Confessionalist Homiletics of Lucas Osiander (1534-1604) Sivert Angel, 2014-11-26 Lucas Osiander 1534-1604 was an influential preacher of the Lutheran orthodoxy As a Württemberg court preacher and superintendent he played a central role when the country was established as one of the leading Lutheran forces in the Empire Osiander preached to a wide audience in a time when sermons were a privileged form of communication and when preachers could address and negotiate the central interests in society Using confessionalization theory Sivert Angel studies Osiander's preaching in its political and theological context and shows how Osiander as a preacher could exert political influence By analyzing Osiander's sermons in light of his own homiletic the author describes how Osiander's role as a preacher may be traced in his sermons rhetoric structures and in his use of theological concepts

The discussion of Osiander's theory and practice of preaching documents the ways that Osiander's sermons reinforced the existing political and social order and portrays central aspects of theology and piety in the later sixteenth century
