Helene Cixous Morag Shiach,1991      Hélène Cixous Morag Shiach,1991-01-01 Helene Cixous's analyses of the relations between sexuality and textual production have transformed theoretical discussions of gender and writing. Her work on the implications of a feminine economy in writing and insistence on the bodily dimensions of textual production are crucial to an understanding of the project of feminist literary criticism      The Politics of Writing in Iran Kamran

Talattof,2000-05-01 Emerging in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries as a secular activity, Persian literature acquired its own modernity by redefining past aesthetic practices of identity and history. By analyzing selected work of major pre and post revolutionary literary figures, Talattof shows how Persian literary history has not been an integrated continuum but a series of distinct episodic movements shaped by shifting ideologies. Drawing on western concepts, modern Persian literature has responded to changing social and political conditions through complex strategies of metaphorical and allegorical representations that both construct and denounce cultural continuities. The book provides a unique contribution in that it draws on texts that demonstrate close affinity to such diverse ideologies as modernism, Marxism, feminism, and Islam. Each ideological standard has influenced the form, characterization, and figurative language of literary texts, as well as setting the criteria for literary criticism and determining which issues are to be the focus of literary journals      White Ink Helene

Cixous, Susan Sellers,2014-12-05 Helene Cixous is widely regarded as one of the world's most influential feminist writers and thinkers. White Ink brings together her most revealing interviews available in English for the first time. Spanning over four decades and including a new interview with the editor Susan Sellers, this collection presents a brilliant running commentary on the subjects at the heart of Cixous' writing. Here Cixous discusses her books and her creative process, her views on, and insights into, literature, philosophy, theatre, politics, aesthetics, faith, and ethics, human relations, and the state of the world. As she responds to interviewers' questions, Cixous is prompted to reflect on her roles and activities as poet, playwright, feminist theorist, professor of literature, philosopher, woman, Jew. Each interview is a remarkable performance, an event in language and thought where Cixous' celebrated intellectual and poetic force can be witnessed in action. The accessibility of the interview format provides an excellent starting point for readers new to Cixous, while those already familiar with her work will find unexpected insights and fresh elucidations of her thought      The concept of Ecriture Feminine in Helene Cixous's "The Laugh of the Medusa" Simon Wortmann,2013-04-15

Essay from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies, Literature, grade 1-7, Christian Albrechts University of Kiel, language: English, abstract: In the year 1975 the French feminist author Helene Cixous published an essay called The Laugh of the Medusa. In it she develops an entirely new theoretical concept with the aim of giving rise to feminist voice. The central ideas of Ecriture Feminine, literally 'women's writing', are going to be presented in this paper. In the first part a brief description of Cixous's intellectual milieu is given in order to show the actual reason that led her to come up with a new notion of liberating women from patriarchy. In this context an elaboration on poststructuralism the philosophical current Cixous belonged to follows Closely related to that is the authors skepticism towards Sigmund Freud s language philosophy Specifically speaking Freud s statements on the penis envy theory Primary attention is paid to the theory of phallogentrism which can be seen as one of the main reasons for Cixous s writings For a better understanding of this term the concept of logocentrism is also explained as well Logocentrism can be seen as a pillar of the theory of phallogentrism and therefore it deserves to be mentioned at this point In the second part we deal with the question of what is actually meant by women s writing Furthermore we will analyze which role the female body and sexuality plays in this context This excursion is highly interesting as it is crucial for the understanding of her concept Since the female body is considered a key for women to resist masculinist thinking and hence the systematic repression of women Apart from that we try to show whether features of Écriture Feminine are evident in the The Laugh of the Medusa Moreover a different viewpoint on Cixous s theory is shown in the chapter Criticism in which arguments for and against her theory are shown In point five Conclusion the main aspects of this paper are summed up When writing this paper the main source of information were essays on women s writing and French feminist writing dating from 1987 to 1986 Besides secondary literature on literary and cultural theory as well as feminist practice and poststructuralist theory were used Recent research on Cixous s work however could not be found The only source dealing particularly with her writings dates from 1991 Writing the Politics of Difference Hugh J. Silverman, 1991-01-01 This book addresses various phases of continental philosophy both in the context of its multiple traditions and in relation to the alternatives that mark the understanding of its present and future Divided into two parts the authors first focus on the diversity of traditions in continental philosophy in connection with the texts of Hegel Marx Kierkegaard Sartre and De Beauvoir Second they explore the reality of social political sexual and philosophical differences in connection with the writings of Merleau Ponty Arendt Habermas Heidegger Foucault Irigaray Kristeva Derrida and Vattimo They also stress the various theoretical foundations that manifest these differences Issues surrounding the role of philosophical systems language ethical choice relations with others the gendered body socialization and the status of philosophy today constitute the fabric of this book The authors place these ideas in the context of current thought and current debates in continental philosophy and evaluate their significance for the future

Women's writing in contemporary France Gill Rye, Michael Worton, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women s writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writer s coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Regine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leila Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up to date introduction to an analysis of new women s writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counter parts The editors incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary production today whilst fifteen original essays focus on individual writers The volume includes specialist bibliographies on each writer incorporating English translations major interviews and key critical studies Quotations are given in both French and English throughout An invaluable study resource this book is written in a clear and accessible style and will be of interest to the general reader as well as to students of all levels to teachers of a wide range of courses on French culture and to specialist researchers of French and Francophone literature

Hélène Cixous Morag Shiach,1991 Helene Cixous analyses of the relations between sexuality and textual production have transformed theoretical discussion of gender and writing Her work on the implications of a feminine economy in writing and insistence on the bodily dimensions of textual production have led to a new understanding of the project of feminist literary criticism Morag Shiach provides an introduction for the English speaking reader to the range of Cixous s creative and theoretical writings In dealing with Cixous theoretical arguments Shiach both clarifies the philosophical and historical context of her work and insists on its novelty and specificity The book offers close analysis of Cixous fictional texts as well as her discussions of the relations between the political and the textual There is also a detailed account of Cixous theatrical writings and of her collaboration with the Theatre du Soleil Publisher description

On the Politics of Ugliness Sara Rodrigues,Elia Przybylo,2018-08-29 Ugliness or unsightliness is much more than a quality or property of an individual s appearance it has long functioned as a social category that demarcates access to social cultural and political spaces and capital The editors of and authors in this collection harness intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches in order to examine ugliness as a political category that is deployed to uphold established notions of worth and entitlement On the Politics of Ugliness identifies and challenges the harmful effects that labels and feelings of ugliness have on individuals and the socio political order It explores ugliness in relation to the intersectional processes of racialization colonization and settler colonialism gender making ableism heteronormativity and fatphobia On the Politics of Ugliness asks that we fight against visual injustice and imagine new ways of seeing

The Politics of English as a World Language Christian Mair,2003 The complex politics of English as a world language provides the backdrop both for linguistic studies of varieties of English around the world and for postcolonial literary criticism The present volume offers contributions from linguists and literary scholars that explore this common ground in a spirit of open interdisciplinary dialogue Leading authorities assess the state of the art to suggest directions for further research with substantial case studies ranging over a wide variety of topics from the legitimacy of language norms of lingua franca communication to the recognition of newer post colonial varieties of English in the online OED Four regional sections treat the Caribbean including the diaspora Africa the Indian subcontinent and Australasia and the Pacific Rim Each section maintains a careful balance between linguistics and literature and external and indigenous perspectives on issues The book is the most balanced complete and up to date treatment of the topic to date

Writing Against, Alongside and Beyond Memory Marilyn Metta,2010 The thesis will conclude by bringing together

reflections on the political social and therapeutic implications of writing personal life narratives the limitations of reflexive research methodologies and knowledge making and the implications of lifewriting research for feminist scholarship research and practice     Writing a Politics of Perception Dawn Thompson,2000-01-01 Looking at five novels by women writing in

Cutler,2014-12-24 Cynicism began as a school of philosophy that was largely inspired by Socrates and often decried by popular commentators as a social pathology a nihilistic rebellion against the foundations of civilization Modern definitions of the cynic describe an individual who is negative and sarcastic violently opposed to established authority and social convention and dedicated to existentialism This book attempts to vindicate cynicism arguing that it is both a progressive approach to social dilemmas and an enlightened understanding of the human condition Chapter One establishes the foundations of classical Greek cynicism while later chapters illustrate the varied faces of the cynic phenomenon in the persons of such disparate characters as Machiavelli Nietzsche Diogenes the Dadaists George Bataille Samuel Beckett Auberon Waugh the creators of South Park and others Nietzsche is portrayed as the most important representative of both classical and postmodern cynicism as well as the pivotal link between the two The book focuses on significant periods of historical change such as the Renaissance and the historical cynics responsible for several seminal social ideas including cosmopolitanism citizenship of the world asceticism personal growth through self testing and parrhesia finding one's voice in the presence of tyrannical forces The author claims that aspects of Greek cynicism are present in contemporary society offering a positive strategy for living in a hostile world

The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism
Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2005 Publisher Description The Politics of Interpretation Patrick Colm Hogan, 1990-07-26 This interpretive study analyzes the complex politics of literature criticism and professionalism While affirming the profound importance of political analysis from the ideological critique of literary texts to the social and economic critique of academic institutions Hogan reassesses the poststructuralist doctrines that underlie much recent work in this area He presents extended expositions and criticisms of the views of several influential poststructuralist writers including Jacques Derrida and Luce Irigaray In keeping with recent post poststructuralist trends in France and elsewhere Hogan argues for the political necessity of rational inference and empirical enquiry guided by ethical and more specifically Kantian considerations In the process he convincingly formulates a general theory of ideology that recognizes the crucial link between literary politics and the concrete political issues that affect the lives of real men and women in the real world of social and material life His study concludes with an economic analysis of the institutions of literary study outlining some anarchist implications for their restructuring

French Women in Politics: Writing Power Raylene L. Ramsay, 2003 Although more women in France have entered political life than ever before the fact remains that there are fewer women representatives in the French parliament than there were after the Second World War In a new and original approach the author presents an overview and analysis of the emerging body of text by or on women who have held high political office in France The argument is that writing about women and politics has not just described or reflected women's slow but now substantial entry into political life it has played a major part in shaping the parity debate and its outcomes Interviews with political women such as Huguette Bouchardeau Simone Veil or Edith Cresson inserted in the text demonstrate the emergence and circulation of a new common discourse focused on the issue of whether women in politics make or should make a difference A close reading of the various texts examined in this book and their connection to new public counter discourses in France suggest that a re writing of power is indeed occurring
