Helene Cixous Authorship Autobiography And Love:

Helene Cixous Susan Sellers, 2013-06-10 This book is a clear and accessible introduction to the writings of Helene Cixous novelist dramatist and critic whose work has had a major impact on feminist theory and practice Susan Sellers a major scholar on Cixous provides a lucid account of Cixous's theoretical position and in particular her distinctive theory of an écriture féminine She discusses the development of Cixous's literary oeuvre in the context of this theory and analyses a selection of the works in detail to illustrate the different stages in Cixous's writing career Focusing on the key novels and plays Sellers explores a range of issues and themes central to her work the correlation between the death of Cixous's own father and her coming into being as a writer the psychological process of separation and individuation and the creation of a female authorial self the discovery of the other and the dramatization of love the delineation depiction of an alternative form of relationship between self and other which would have a significance in a wider sphere than that of the merely personal This much needed book will be welcomed by students in literature and literary theory feminism and women's studies English and French studies and philosophy

Helene Cixous Abigail Bray, Julian Wolfreys, 2003-12-11 Abigail Bray offers a lucid and accessible introduction to Helene Cixous and her theorisation of writing and sexual difference This book explores the context of feminist debates surrounding Cixous's work and provides a concise explanation of her major philosophical and literary concepts including the other bisexuality the third body and écriture féminine Bray demonstrates through original and provocative readings of texts by James Joyce Virginia Woolf Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter the creative potential of Cixous's thought on literature and philosophy Reading Cixous alongside Nietzsche Heidegger Deleuze and Derrida Bray argues for a recognition of Cixous as one of the important thinkers of our times

Cixous's Semi-Fictions Mairead Hanrahan, 2014-09-15 Helene Cixous author of over forty works of fiction was deemed by Derrida to be the greatest living writer in French in 1990 Consistent with this evaluation her writing is renowned for its dense poetical texture and lyricism At the same time she has been described by one of Derrida's translators Peggy Kamuf as one of our age's greatest semi-theoreticians Connecting these views Hanrahan argues for a consideration of her texts as semi-fictions She offers an in-depth reading of five different texts addressing their idiomatic specificity and investigating how the textual fabric unfolds

Figuring the Woman Author in Contemporary Fiction M. Eagleton, 2005-12-15 If the author is dead if feminism is post why does the figure of the woman author keep appearing as a central character in contemporary fiction She is concerned with ownership but equally with loss determined to enter the cultural field but also rejecting that field looking for control but subject to duplicity seeking power alongside desire Drawing on a diverse range of contemporary authors including Atwood Byatt Brookner Coetzee Lurie LeGuin Michelle Roberts Shields Spark Weldon Walker this study explores the complexity and continuing fascination of this figure

Fifty Key Literary Theorists Richard J. Lane, 2006-09-27 Covering over a century's worth of debate thinking and writing about literature this is a unique guide to the lives and works of fifty theorists who have left an indelible mark on literary studies Featuring theorists such as Judith Butler Jacques Derrida Sigmund Freud and Edward Said this accessible guide includes a glossary of terms full cross referencing for maximum ease of use authoritative guides to further reading on and by each theorist An essential resource for all students of literature Fifty Key Literary Theorists explores the gamut of critical debate from the New Critics to the Deconstructionists and from post colonialism to post Marxism and more

Slow Philosophy Michelle Boulous Walker, 2016-12-15 In an age of internet scrolling and skimming where concentration and attention are fast becoming endangered skills it is timely to think about the act of reading and the many forms that it can take Slow Philosophy Reading Against the Institution makes the case for thinking about reading in philosophical terms Boulous Walker argues that philosophy involves the patient work of thought in this it resembles the work of art which invites and implores us to take our time and to engage with the world At its best philosophy teaches us to read slowly in fact philosophy is the art of reading slowly and this inevitably clashes with many of our current institutional practices and demands Slow reading shares something in common with contemporary social movements such as that devoted to slow food it offers us ways to engage the complexity of the world With the help of writers as diverse as Nietzsche Wittgenstein Woolf Adorno Levinas Critchley Beauvoir Le Duff Irigaray Cixous Weil and others Boulous Walker offers a foundational text in the emerging field of slow philosophy one that explores the importance of unhurried time in establishing our institutional encounters with complex and demanding works

Consuming Autobiographies Claire Boyle, 2017-12-02 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term écriture de soi This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned In the first book length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post war authors Nathalie Sarraute Georges Perec Jean Genet and Helene Cixous She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self

Emergent Writing Methodologies in Feminist Studies Mona Livholts, 2012-03-22 Contemporary challenges for seeking new knowledge in feminist studies are intimately intertwined with methodological renewal that promotes justice and equality in changing global contexts Written by some of the leading scholars in their fields this edited collection focuses on the emergence of writing methodologies in feminist studies and their implications for the study of power and change The book explores some of the central politics ideas and dimensions of power that shape and condition knowledge at the same time as it elaborates critical embodied reflective and situated writing practices By bringing together a variety of multi transdisciplinary contributions in a single collection the anthology offers a timely and intellectually stimulating contribution that deals with how new forms of writing research can contribute to promote fruitful analysis of inequality and power relations related to gender racialisation ethnicity class and heteronormativity and their intersections It also includes the complex relationship between author text and audiences The intended audience is postgraduates researchers and academics within feminist and intersectionality studies across disciplines in the humanities and social sciences The book is excellent as literature in feminist studies courses and helpful guidance for teaching writing sessions and workshops

The Feminine Subject in Children's Literature

Christine Wilkie-Stibbs, 2013-12-16 This book builds upon and contributes to the growing academic interest in feminism within the field of children's literature studies Christie Wilkie Stibbs draws upon the work of Luce Irigaray Helene Cixous Julia Kristeva and Jacques Lacan in her analysis of particular children's literature texts to demonstrate how a feminist analysis opens up textual possibilities that may be applied to works of children's fiction in general extending the range of textual engagements in children's literature through the application of a new poststructural critical apparatus

Myth and Fairy Tale in Contemporary Women's Fiction Susan Sellers, 2017-03-14 Woman as gorgon woman as temptress the classical and biblical mythology which has dominated Western thinking defines women in a variety of patriarchally encoded roles This study addresses the surprising persistence of mythical influence in contemporary fiction Opening with the question what is myth the first section provides a wide ranging review of mythography It traces how myths have been perceived and interpreted by such commentators as Sigmund Freud Carl Jung Bruno Bettelheim Roland Barthes Jack Zipes and Marina Warner This leads to an examination of the role that mythic narrative plays in social and self formation drawing on the literary feminist and psychoanalytic theories of Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray Helene Cixous and Judith Butler to delineate the ways in which women's mythos can transcend the limitations of logos and give rise to potent new models for individual and cultural regeneration In this light Susan Sellers offers challenging new readings of a wide range of contemporary women's fiction including works by A S Byatt Angela Carter Anne Rice Michele Roberts Emma Tennant and Fay Weldon Topics explored include fairy tale as erotic fiction new religious writing vampires and gender bending mythic mothers genre fiction the still persuasive paradigm of feminine beauty and the radical potential of comedy

Reading the Song of Songs in a #MeToo Era, 2023-06-26 The Song of Songs is the only book of the Bible to privilege the voice of a woman and its poetry of love and eroticism also bears witness to violence How do the contemporary MeToo movement and other movements of protest and accountability renew questions about women gender sex and the problematic of the public at the heart of this ancient poetry This edited volume seeks to reinvigorate feminist scholarship on the Song by exploring diverse contexts of reading from Akkadian love lyrics to Hildegard of Bingen to Marc Chagall

Posthumorism Frances McDonald, 2022-01-27 Examining the multiple non humorous meanings of laughter this book explores a unique strain of laughter in modernism that is without humor without humans and without humanism Providing a bold new theory of modernism's affects Posthumorism chronicles the scattered emergence of a particular strain of humorless laughter in twentieth century literature film and philosophy From William James's trippy experiments with laughing gas to the wide open suicide shriek of Major Kong in Stanley Kubrick's Dr Strangelove modernity is strewn with examples of such laughter defined by its ability to crack up and destroy whilst opening new horizons of perception Examining the creative operation of posthumorist laughter this book explores how various stylists of the form from Nathanael West and Kurt Vonnegut to Georges Bataille and Hélène Cixous use it as a tool to unsettle reconfigure the individual human and shape different forms of humanist discourse

Laughter Anca Parvulescu, 2010-08-27 Uncovering an archive of laughter from the forbidden giggle to the explosive guffaw Most of our theories of laughter are not concerned with laughter Rather their focus is the laughable object whether conceived of as the comic the humorous jokes the grotesque the ridiculous or the ludicrous In Laughter Anca Parvulescu proposes a return to the materiality of the burst of laughter itself She sets out to uncover an archive of laughter inviting us to follow its rhythms and listen to its tones Historically laughter especially the passionate burst of laughter has often been a faux pas Manuals for conduct abetted by philosophical treatises and literary and visual texts warned against it offering special injunctions to ladies to avoid jollity that was too boisterous Returning laughter to the history of the passions Parvulescu anchors it at the point where the history of the grimacing face meets the history of noise In the civilizing process that leads to laughter's falling into disrepute as Nietzsche famously put it we can see the formless contorted face in laughter being slowly corrected into a calm social smile How did the twentieth century laugh Parvulescu points to a gallery of twentieth century laughers and friends of laughter arguing that it is through Georges Bataille that the century laughed its most distinct laugh In Bataille's wake laughter becomes the passion at the heart of poststructuralism Looking back at the century from this vantage point Parvulescu revisits four of its most challenging projects modernism the philosophical avant-gardes feminism and cinema The result is an overview of the twentieth century as seen through the laughs that burst at some of its most convoluted junctures

The Hysteric's Revenge Rachel Mesch, 2006 Brings into relief a critical relationship between the female mind and body that is essential to understanding the discursive position of the turn of the century woman writer This book includes novels that confront this mind/body problem through a wide variety of styles and genres that challenge conventional fin de siècle notions of femininity

Women's writing in contemporary France Gill Rye, Michael Worton, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY-NC-ND open access license The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women's writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writers coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Régine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leïla Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up-to-date introduction to an analysis of new women's writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counterparts The editors' incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary production today whilst fifteen original essays focus on individual writers The volume includes specialist bibliographies on each writer incorporating English translations major interviews and key critical studies Quotations are given in both French and English throughout An invaluable study resource this book is written in a clear and accessible style and will be of interest to the general reader as well as to students of all levels to teachers of a wide range of courses on French culture and to specialist researchers of French and Francophone literature

A Poetics of Church Jennifer Reek, 2017-09-25 This innovative book aims to create a poetics of Church and a religious imaginary as alternatives to more institutional and conventional ways of thinking and of being Church Structured as a spiritual and literary journey the work moves from models of the institutional Catholic Church into more radical and ambiguous textual spaces which the author creates by bringing together an unorthodox group of thinkers referred to as poet companions the 16th century founder of the Society of Jesus

Ignatius of Loyola the French thinkers Gaston Bachelard and Hélène Cixous the French poet Yves Bonnefoy and the English playwright Dennis Potter Inspired especially by the reading and writing practices of Cixous the author attempts to exemplify Cixous notion of critique of masculine writing that suggests new ways of seeing and relating The project's uniting of Ignatian spirituality with postmodern thinking and its concern with creating new theological literary and spiritual spaces for women both coincide and contrast with Pope Francis's pastoral and reformist tendencies which have neglected to adequately address the marginalisation of women in the Church As Francis has called for a theology of women of which there are of course many to draw from this volume will be a timely contribution with a unique interdisciplinary approach

The Unconcept Anneleen Masschelein, 2012-01-02 The Unconcept is the first genealogy of the concept of the Freudian uncanny tracing the development paradoxes and movements of this negative concept through various fields and disciplines from psychoanalysis literary theory and philosophy to film studies genre studies sociology religion architecture theory and contemporary art Anneleen Masschelein explores the vagaries of this unconcept in the twentieth century beginning with Freud's seminal essay The Uncanny through a period of conceptual latency leading to the first real conceptualizations in the 1970s and then on to the present dissemination of the uncanny to exotic fields such as hauntology the study of ghosts robotics and artificial intelligence She unearths new material on the uncanny from the English French and German traditions and sheds light on the specific status of the concept in contemporary theory and practice in the humanities This essential reference book for researchers and students of the uncanny is written in an accessible style Through the lens of the uncanny the familiar contours of the intellectual history of the twentieth century appear in a new and exciting light
