

BEFORE AND AFTER

How much of the world's land is covered by forests? How much of the world's forests are being lost? How much of the world's forests are being protected?

These are the questions that the World Resources Institute is asking.

Hell And After Four Early English Language Poets Of Australia

Judd E. Hollander

Hell And After Four Early English Language Poets Of Australia:

Antipodean Antiquities Marguerite Johnson, 2019-03-21 Leading and emerging early career scholars in Classical Reception Studies come together in this volume to explore the under represented area of the Australasian Classical Tradition They interrogate the interactions between Mediterranean Antiquity and the antipodean worlds of New Zealand and Australia through the lenses of literature film theatre and fine art Of interest to scholars across the globe who research the influence of antiquity on modern literature film theatre and fine art this volume fills a decisive gap in the literature by bringing antipodean research into the spotlight Following a contextual introduction to the field the six parts of the volume explore the latest research on subjects that range from the Lord of the Rings and Xena Warrior Princess franchises to important artists such as Sidney Nolan and local authors whose work offers opportunities for cross cultural and interdisciplinary analysis with well known Western authors and artists

Australian Classics Jane Gleeson-White, 2010 What are the classic works of Australian literature And what can they tell us about ourselves and the land we live in Providing a selected overview of Australia s greatest literature Australian Classics is an accessible companion to our literature and a story of writing in Australia from the nineteenth century to the present Australian Class

Imagined Australia Renata Summo-O'Connell, 2009 From Terra Nullius to Land of Opportunities and Last Frontier the European dream has constructed and deconstructed Australia to feed its imagination of new societies At the same time Australia has over the last two centuries forged and re invented its own liaisons with Europe arguably to carve out its identity From the arts to social sciences to society itself a complex dynamic has grown between the two continents in ways that invite study and discussion A transnational research group has begun its collective investigation project of which this first volume is the outcome The book is a substantial multidisciplinary collection of current research and offers critical perspectives on culture literature and history around themes at the heart of the Imagined Australia project The essays instigate reflection discovery and discussion of how reciprocal imagining between Australia and Europe has articulated itself and ways and dimensions in which a relationship between communities imagined and not has unfolded

Little Book of Australian Orchids National Library of Australia, 2014-09-01 Orchid and flower art enthusiasts will love the last addition to the National Library of Australia s popular Little Books series Little Book of Australian Orchids is a delightful pairing of orchid images from the Library s collections with Australian poetry In the hands of artists such as Ellis Rowan Robert David Fitzgerald and Adam Forster these exquisite flowers enliven the words of such well known poets as Judith Wright David Campbell and Andrew Lansdown

The Intimate Archive Maryanne Dever, Ann Vickery, Sally Newman, 2009 The Intimate Archive examines the issues involved in using archival material to research the personal lives of public people in this case of Australian writers Marjorie Barnard 1897 1987 Aileen Palmer 1915 1988 and Lesbia Harford 1891 1927 The book provides an insight into the romantic experiences of the three women based on their private letters diaries and notebooks held in public institutions Maryanne

Dever Ann Vickery and Sally Newman consider the ethical dilemmas that they faced while researching private material in particular of making conclusions based on material that was possibly never intended by its subjects to be consumed publically In this sense the book is both an introverted contemplation of private affairs and an extroverted meditation on the right to acquire and assume intimate knowledge

The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva's idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality

Hell and After Les A. Murray, 2005 Les Murray's anthology of four early Australian poets reaches back in time from Fivefathers his collection of five Australian poets of the earlier twentieth century Hell and After contains substantial selections of the work of McNamara 1811-1880 and three poets from the second half of the nineteenth century The social reformer Mary Gilmore 1865-1962 grew up in the bush and her poems are vivid evocations of colonial life John Shaw Neilson 1872-1942 a poet of great lyricism and humour spent most of his life in poverty as a manual labourer and Lesbia Harford 1891-1927 was a radical activist who worked as a factory machinist and servant

BOOK JACKET Australian Literary Studies, 2006

Stressing the Modern Anne Vickery, 2007 Stressing the Modern Cultural Politics in Australian Women's Poetry is the first major study of women's poetic careers in early twentieth century Australia This was a particularly prolific period for women poets as a rapidly changing social climate generated new often still ambivalent identities around gender race class and nation Negotiating the modern landscape and the modern psyche through the complex effects of Federation the suffrage movement World War I increasing industrialisation and urbanisation and advances in technology necessitated innovations in poetic form and a rethinking of authorship This exciting study examines the increasing visibility and popularity of women as poets their shaping of literary tastes through editing and criticism their cross influence and friendships and the resulting backlash within Australian literary circles Furthermore it traces how these writers mediated their experiences of travel expatriation and transnationalism against the desire to produce a literature of difference that is poetry that was regionally or culturally distinct Using extensive archival material Stressing the Modern offers a new understanding of the emergence of literary modernism in Australia It demonstrates the significance of poetry as both a popular and a radical site for articulating modern lives and their concerns PN Review ,2007-10
