ROSEMARY HAMILTON

Hellbent For Enlightenment

Wolfgang Guggemos

Hellbent For Enlightenment:

Hellbent for Enlightenment Rosemary Hamilton, 1998 Rosemary Hamilton's account of her life as a follower of the notorious Indian spiritual teacher Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh now known as Osho. Rosemary was Rajneesh's personal cook at Rajneeshpuri, the controversial Oregon ashram. She remained with her teacher after his deportation from the United States following Rajneesh's return to India. A fascinating account of one woman's spiritual odyssey as she abandons a successful career in search of enlightenment. With the guidance of Rajneesh, Rosemary follows an unusual path utilising the unorthodox spiritual techniques, sacred sexuality, dynamic meditation techniques, and a joyous tweaking of the sacred cows of religious orthodoxies East and West that made Rajneesh so popular and controversial.

The New Religious Movements

Experience in America Eugene V. Gallagher, 2004-10-30 Wherever and whenever they appear, new religious movements always produce conflict. Even as they attract members who enthusiastically embrace their innovative teachings, new religions often provoke strongly negative reactions, often because they challenge established notions of proper religious action, belief, and morality. Opponents of new religious movements often brand them as cults and urge their fellow citizens, their own religions, and even the government to take action against what they see as suspicious and potentially dangerous movements. The members often complain that their motives have been misconstrued and argue that their groups are unfairly persecuted. The New Religious Movements: Experience in America outlines the conflict between representatives of the status quo and new religions and examines how these groups appear both to their members and to their cultural opponents. This work is ideal for anyone—students, parents, and teachers—who wish to gain a deeper understanding of new religious movements in America. New religions have always been part of the American religious landscape, and this book moves beyond the contemporary period to discuss examples of new religions that have originated, survived, or died, and sometimes prospered throughout U.S. history. Among the groups discussed are the Mormons, the Peoples Temple, the Branch Davidians, Spiritualism, Theosophy, the Church Universal and Triumphant, the International Society for Krishna Consciousness, the followers of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, Soka Gakkai, the Nation of Islam, Wiccans, and neo-Pagans, the Church of Satan, the Church of Scientology, Heaven's Gate, and the Raelians. The New Religious Movements: Experience in America includes a glossary and a list of resources for those interested in doing further research on the experience of the followers of new religions.

Three

Dangerous Magi: Osho Gurdjieff Cr. P. T. Mistlberger, 2010-10-12 The Three Dangerous Magi reveals scandal, mayhem, death, sex, drugs, ecstasy, enlightenment in the lives of the three most notorious sages of the 20th century. Use their story for personal transformation.

Enlightenment Blues Andre van der Braak, 2016-12-18 Enlightenment Blues is Andre van der Braak's compelling first-hand account of his relationship with a prominent spiritual teacher. It chronicles both the author's spiritual journey and disenchantment, as well as the development of a missionary and controversial community around the teacher. It powerfully exposes the problems and necessities of disentanglement from a spiritual path. Enlightenment Blues is the account of a young man's sincere and protracted struggle to transform his life according to the teachings of the American guru Andrew Cohen. Ruthlessly honest and unsettling, Andre van der Braak gives a vivid first-hand account of an uncompromising experiment in establishing Indian spirituality in a modern Western setting. This story is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the allure and pitfalls of surrendering one's authority in the hope of spiritually transforming the world.

Stephen Batchelor, Author: Buddhism without Beliefs: Narrated with the psychological subtlety and drama of a good novel, Enlightenment Blues is a precise, profound dissection of the guru-devotee relationship. It should be required reading for all who are currently engaged in or considering studying under a spiritual teacher.

John Horgan, author of Rational Mysticism: A profound contribution. The maturity and balance of this book place it at the front rank of works on contemporary spirituality. All the major themes of the spiritual quest are here: reason versus emotion, the problem of the ego, the guru self-doubt, the place of altered states.

Andre van der Braak has the creative gift of being able to hold opposing ideas in his mind without moving towards premature closure. Hence this heartfelt account of his eleven years in the Cohen movement is a beautiful testament to one man's quest to discover his own reality.

Enlightenment Blues deserves the widest readership.

Len Oakes, Prophetic Charisma: Enlightenment Blues is the personal story of one man's eleven-year journey into and out of a group of seekers of enlightenment with a charismatic leader who claims to be an exemplar of perfection. What distinguishes this book are the writer's insights and honesty in portraying the workings of an authoritarian belief system that operates under the guise of spiritual revelations.

Anyone who has ever belonged to such a group or knows anyone who has or who wants to understand what the appeals and dangers of surrendering to a guru consist of would benefit from reading this book.

Joel Kramer, author The Guru Papers: Andre van der Braak's story is our own story. We walked the yellow brick road, whether it was Zen or Yoga or Advaita. We desperately wished for or found a Guru who could help us find our way home and we wholly gave ourselves.

Andre's talk of it is fresh and innocent. He takes us by the hand through a hazardous trail. Neither bitter nor estranged nor having lost his passion for the way he remembers with us what really happened and why.

Orit Sen Gupta, Author: Dancing the Body of Light: The Future of Yoga: Andre van der Braak lived in Andrew Cohen's spiritual community for 11 years, an involvement initiated shortly after Cohen had begun teaching. He was one of the original editors for What is Enlightenment Magazine. He was also an editor for Cohen's first teaching text, Enlightenment is a Secret, which entailed reading over 4,000 pages of transcribed talks and editing them into book form.

Today he lives in Amsterdam where he teaches philosophy at the University of Amsterdam and at Luzac College in Alkmaar.

Fictions of America Judie Newman, 2007-12-04 The Internet has had a huge impact on channels of communication and information reaching across time and space to connect the world through globalisation. In this Internet-led world, story links to story, windows open on new stories and no overall authority establishes priority This sense of globalisation has raised many questions for contemporary American Novelists primarily the usefulness or redundancy of narrative and its potentially adaptive function What are the right stories for such a broadband world How do contemporary American novelists respond to issues such as the influence of the multinational corporation and its predecessors human rights Imperialism the literary work as a marketable commodity translation as betrayal data overload and the implosion of the virtual into the biosphere Is globalisation inevitable or is it a fiction which fiction turns into reality Fictions of America explores these questions and looks at the ways in which India China and Africa can be said to have underwritten American culture how literature has been marketed globally and how novelists have answered back to power with resistant fictions Judie Newman examines a wide range of fiction from the mid nineteenth to the twenty first century including the transnational adoption narrative short story historical novel slave narrative international bestseller and Western to illustrate her argument Looking closely at authors such as Bharati Mukherjee John Updike Emily Prager Hannah Crafts Zora Neale Hurston David Bradley Peter Heg and Cormac McCarthy Fictions of America provides a bold response to the crucial questions raised by globalisation
