Wandering Poets and Other Essays on Late Greek Literature and Philosophy Alan Cameron, 2016. This book presents radically revised and updated versions of the most important and innovative articles published by Alan Cameron in the field of late antique Greek poetry and philosophy, attempting to define pagan and Christian elements in early Byzantine literary culture. The longest chapter presents a new account of the closing of the Academy of Athens and a new article discusses recent theories on the date of the epigrammatist Palladas.

Iconoclasm from Antiquity to Modernity Kristine Kolrud, Marina Prusac, 2016-12-05. The phenomenon of iconoclasm expressed through hostile actions towards images has occurred in many different cultures throughout history. The destruction and mutilation of images is often motivated by a blend of political and religious ideas and beliefs and the distinction between various kinds of iconoclasm is not absolute. In order to explore further the long and varied history of iconoclasm, the contributors to this volume consider iconoclastic reactions to various types of objects both in the very recent and distant past. The majority focus on historical periods but also on history as a backdrop for image troubles of our own day. Development over time is a central question in the volume and cross-cultural influences are also taken into consideration. This broad approach provides a useful comparative perspective both on earlier controversies over images and relevant issues today. In the multimedia era, increased awareness of the possible consequences of the use of images is of utmost importance.

approaches some of the problems related to the display of particular kinds of images in conflicted societies and the power to decide on the use of visual means of expression It provides a deeper understanding of the mechanisms of the phenomenon of iconoclasm Of interest to a wide group of scholars the contributors draw upon various sources and disciplines including art history cultural history religion and archaeology as well as making use of recent research from within social and political sciences and contemporary events Whilst the texts are addressed primarily to those researching the Western world the volume contains material which will also be of interest to students of the Middle East

The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-27 Darlene L Brooks Hedstrom offers a new history of the field of Egyptian monastic archaeology It is the first study in English to trace how scholars identified a space or site as monastic within the Egyptian landscape and how such identifications impacted perceptions of monasticism Brooks Hedstrom then provides an ecohistory of Egypt's tripartite landscape to offer a reorientation of the perception of the physical landscape She analyzes late antique documentary evidence early monastic literature and ecclesiastical history before turning to the extensive archaeological evidence of Christian monastic settlements In doing so she illustrates the stark differences between idealized monastic landscape and the actual monastic landscape that was urbanized through monastic constructions Drawing upon critical theories in landscape studies materiality and phenomenology Brooks Hedstrom looks at domestic settlements of non monastic and monastic settlements to posit what features makes monastic settlements unique thus offering a new history of monasticism in Egypt
