Soul Friends Stephen Cope,2017-04-04 Most of us will have many friends throughout our lifetimes friends of all shapes sizes and callings Many of these are wonderful meaningful friendships Some are difficult But some magic few of these are connections that have gone right to our soul These five or seven or ten friendships have been powerful keys to determining who we have become and who we will become These are the people I call Soul Friends As the Senior Scholar in Residence for over 25 years at the renowned Kripalu Center Stephen Cope has spent decades investigating and writing about the integration of body mind and spirit and the rich complexity of our relationships with others and with ourselves Perhaps the central truth that arises from his work is this human beings are universally wired for one thing vital connection with one another Soul Friends invites us on a compelling journey into the connectivity of the human psyche the study of which has fascinated scholars philosophers and thinkers for centuries Cope seamlessly blends science scholarship and storytelling drawing on his own life as well as the histories of famous figures from Eleanor Roosevelt to Charles Darwin to Queen Victoria whose formative relationships shed light on the nature of friendship itself In his exploration he distills human connection into six distinct yet interconnected mechanisms containment twinship adversity mirroring identification and conscious partnership Then he invites us to reflect on how these forms of connection appear in our own lives helping us work toward a fuller understanding of who we have become and who we will become Without a doubt the journey to our most fulfilled selves requires us to look within But in order to truly thrive we must make the most of who we are in relation to one another as well Unsparingly honest deeply wise and irresistibly readable Soul Friends gives us a map to find our way Not Necessarily the Newberys Joan Louthain Ayer,2018-11-14 When Anita Silvey spoke at our Children s Literature Conference at Butler University several years ago it was quite a thrill for those of us who share her enthusiasm for well written books The former editor of The Horn Book Magazine wore one of her signature hats and sat casually on the edge of the stage and chatted with us Her 2004 book 100 Best Books for Children has been one of my most trusted references as I chose these 75 books for your independent reader She tells us in her bio for these books that she estimates she has read 125 000 children s books in her lifetime I chose eleven of her classic recommendations to review for you in this book Here are six of these not to be missed titles Betsy Tacy The Incredible Journey The Cricket in Times Square Sarah Plain and Tall Stone Fox and Tom s Midnight Garden Making a Difference Days Elizabeth Cole Midgley,2008-09-01 Make your classroom a place of celebration with the creative ideas in this packet that focus on people who have made a difference in the world Each special day includes suggestions for incorporating it into your regular curriculum such as language arts social studies math science and sensory experiences The celebrations in this packet include Gandhi s Birthday Eleanor Roosevelt s Birthday United Nations Day and Teddy Roosevelt s Birthday With these ideas your students will have fun and look forward to learning
