Aboriginal Tradition James Cowan, 1992 The Intersection of Sacredness and Archaeology Donna L. Gillette, Thomas L. Sanders, 2024-10-01 At the point of the often contentious intersection of sacred site preservation and resource development archaeology has a unique and valuable role Archaeology has been criticized as a destroyer of sacred sites through the unbridled pursuit of knowledge through excavation or aiding unbridled development by failing to identify sacred sites However archaeology can act as a mitigator between the conflicting goals of preservation and development while giving the indigenous a voice At the heart of this mitigation is understanding the sacred how it might be physically manifested how those of diverse cultures understand it and how it is effected by the laws and norms of diverse cultures The purpose of this book is to enhance the discussion surrounding contemporary human interaction with our natural and cultural landscape Its first goal is make this discussion more productive and less contentious by presenting and thus recognizing the cultural ways of knowing and perspectives of indigenous people Its second goal is to foster the preservation of our scared landscape As more and more of our physical landscape is being altered worldwide through rapid growth and development the cultural landscape is also being changed and challenged These changes often reflect the interests of some members of society while the interests of others including those of Native and Indigenous communities and many archaeologists environmentalists and others who understand the importance of knowing the past are disregarded The latter group is dedicated toward preserving special places and continuing to provide for Native people the ability to celebrate their traditions and focusing on defining the sacred landscape Emerging Perspectives on Anti-oppressive Practice Canadian Association of Schools of Social Work. Meeting, Wes Shera, 2003 This book consists of 27 chapters developed from papers originally delivered at a recent conference at the University of Toronto on anti oppressive practice in social work Dr Shera has gathered expert contributors to discuss define and analyse theories of social work practice pedagogical issues fieldwork practice models of education of social work practitioners and current critical issues These selected conference papers lay the groundwork for anti oppressive practice in a way that will generate discussion and inspire researchers and practitioners Pacific Answers to Western Hegemony Jürg Wassmann, 2020-09-02 The destruction of local identity through the relentless encroachment of a McDonaldized cultural imperialism is a global phenomenon Yet the reactions of Pacific peoples to this Western hegemony are diverse and encourage the creation of independent cultural identities through sports and games political mediations tourism media and filmmaking and the struggles for land rights and titles particularly in Australia This book based on extensive fieldwork addresses a subject of great immediacy to peoples of the Pacific Island nations It fills an important gap in existing ethnographic literature on the region and confidently navigates what had previously been considered uncharted even unchartable waters that wide sea between the classic ethnography of Oceania and contemporary anthropology s theoretical concerns with global relations and transnational cultures Its breadth rigour and timely contribution to post colonial politics in Oceania are certain to ensure that this book will provide an enduring contribution to the field The Archaeology of

Difference Anne Clarke,Robin Torrence,2003-09-02 The Archaeology of Difference presents a new and radically different perspective on the archaeology of cross cultural contact and engagement The authors move away from acculturation or domination and resistance and concentrate on interaction and negotiation by using a wide variety of case studies which take a crucially indigenous rather than colonial standpoint Protection of First Nations Cultural Heritage Catherine

Dirk Moses,2005-03-01 Colonial Genocide has been seen increasingly as a stepping stone to the European genocides of the twentieth century yet it remains an under researched phenomenon This volume reconstructs instances of Australian genocide and for the first time places them in a global context Beginning with the arrival of the British in 1788 and extending to the 1960s the authors identify the moments of radicalization and the escalation of British violence and ethnic engineering aimed at the Indigenous populations while carefully distinguishing between local massacres cultural genocide and genocide itself These essays reflect a growing concern with the nature of settler society in Australia and in particular with the fate of the tens of thousands of children who were forcibly taken away from their Aboriginal families by state agencies Long considered a relatively peaceful settlement Australian society contained many of the pathologies that led to the exterminatory and eugenic policies of twentieth century Europe
