Larson, 2017-05-17 This book is intended as a text in the history and philosophy of professional psychology It takes a broad view of psychological healing and traces the history of this endeavor from prehistoric times down to the present The story should be useful not only to graduate students in professional psychology but to others in the psycho social or behavioral health fields It emphasizes the importance of multicultural and diversity issues by covering a wide swath of relevant world history to help students understand the cultural matrix that is behind the many people we serve America is a nation of immigrants and they bring with them the legacy of their varied backgrounds A major metaphor is the stream of transmission We practice based on what our teachers knew we improve upon them and in turn pass them on to our students This extended lineage of psychological healing can be summed in four archetypal roles the shaman and priest the physician the teacher and the scientist Modern professional psychology incorporates all of those and this book seeks to tell that story The Theatre of Truth , 2008-02-26 Doctoral Dissertation University of California Berkeley 1995 ABSTRACT Jacob Moreno MD 1889 1974 is known today as the founder of psychodrama which he defined as the science which explores the truth by dramatic methods This dissertation investigates Moreno primarily as a theatre artist It starts with a philosophical analysis of the concepts of acting improvisation and spontaneity and then consolidates the elements of Moreno s theory of the nature and function of theatre which are dispersed throughout his writings and have never been thoroughly collected in one place It also examines how Moreno discovered the healing power of drama while he directed his Theatre of Spontaneity in Vienna 1920s and in New York 1930s The appendix contains Moreno s earliest theatrical text The Godhead as Comedian translated for the first time in

,1978 Musical Encounters with Deleuze and Guattari Pirkko Moisala, Taru Leppänen, Milla Tiainen, Hanna Väättäinen, 2017-01-12 This is the first volume to mobilize encounters between the work of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari and the rich developments in cultural studies of music and sound. The book takes seriously the intellectual and political challenge that the process philosophy of Deleuze and Guattari poses for previous understandings of music as permanent objects and primarily discursive texts. By elaborating on the concepts of Deleuze and Guattari in innovative ways, the chapters of the book demonstrate how musical and sonic practices and expressions can be reconsidered as instances of becoming actors in assemblages and actualizations of virtual tendencies. The collection pushes notions of music and sound beyond such long-term paradigms as identity thinking, the privileging of signification, and the centrality of the human subject. The chapters of the volume bring a range of new topics and methodological approaches in contact with Deleuze and Guattari. These span from movement improvisation, jazz, and western art music studies to sound and performance art and reality TV talent shows to deaf musicians and indigenous music. The book also highlights such fresh ways of doing analysis and shaping the methodological tools of music and sound studies that are enabled by Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy. Their philosophy too gains renewed capacities and potential when responding to ethnographic, cultural, ethnomusicological, participatory, aesthetic, new materialist, feminist, and queer perspectives to music and sound. Dance/Movement Therapy and Sexual Abuse

Einat Shuper Engelhard, 2023-02-20 Dance Movement Therapy and Sexual Abuse addresses the vital role dance movement therapy plays in helping survivors of sexual abuse. Comprising ten chapters, the book describes assessment, diagnosis, and intervention techniques with child, adolescent, and adult survivors of sexual abuse. Using case studies, contributing experts in the field offer the reader a profound understanding of the therapeutic techniques related to movement and the body for the emotional treatment of situations of sexual abuse. The chapters delve into the healing components of treatment during childhood, adolescence, and adulthood and combine psychodynamic understandings with body-mind theories, techniques from the area of somatic experience, and bio-energetic analysis. Full of in-depth and comprehensive therapeutic interventions using dance movement therapy to treat sexual trauma, this book will be an essential resource for dance movement therapists and students of the creative arts therapies. Deleuze, Japanese Cinema, and the Atom Bomb David Deamer, 2014-07-31

David Deamer establishes the first ever sustained encounter between Gilles Deleuze's Cinema books and post-war Japanese cinema, exploring how Japanese films responded to the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. From the early days of occupation, political censorship, to the social and cultural freedoms of the 1960s and beyond, the book examines how images of the nuclear event appear in post-war Japanese cinema. Each chapter begins by focusing upon one or more of three key Deleuzian themes: image, history, and thought, before going on to look at a selection of films from 1945 to the present day. These include movies by well-known directors Kurosawa Akira, Shindo Kaneto, Oshima Nagisa, and Imamura Shohei, popular and cult classics Godzilla 1954, Akira 1988, and Tetsuo 1989, contemporary genre flicks Ring 1998, Dead or Alive 1999, and

Casshern 2004 the avant garde and rarely seen documentaries The author provides a series of tables to clarify the conceptual components deployed within the text establishing a unique addition to Deleuze and cinema studies Philosophising

Andreescu, Michael Shapiro, 2014-09-25

This work is a critical intervention into the archive of female identity it reflects on the ways in which the Central and Eastern European female ideal was constructed represented and embodied in communist societies and on its transformation resulting from the political economic and social changes specific to the post communist social and political transitions During the communist period the female ideal was constituted as a heroic mother and worker both a revolutionary and a state bureaucrat which were regarded as key elements in the processes of industrial development and production She was portrayed as physically strong and with rugged rather than with feminized attributes After the post communist regime collapsed the female ideal s traits changed and instead took on the feminine attributes that are familiar in the West s consumer oriented societies Each chapter in the volume explores different aspects of these changes and links those changes to national security nationalism and relations with Western societies while focusing on a variety of genres of expression such as films music plays literature press reports television talk shows and ethnographic research The topics explored in this volume open a space for discussion and reflection about how radical social change intimately affected the lives and identities of women and their positions in society resulting in various policy initiatives involving women s social and political roles The book will be of interest to students and scholars of gender studies comparative politics Eastern European studies and cultural studies
