Sold into Extinction Jacqueline L. Schneider,2012-03-23 This revealing and compelling title analyzes the illegal trade in endangered species from a criminological viewpoint and presents specific crime reduction techniques that could help save thousands of species from extinction The illegal trade in endangered species is a worldwide problem that involves not only animals but also plants and it contributes to troubling factors such as organized crime as well as the further decline of the earth's natural climate This book explores the extensive endangered species illegal market spotlighting the worldwide nature and extent of the problem and presents revealing case studies of terrestrial marine plant and avian species Sold into Extinction The Global Trade in Endangered Species focuses attention on the plight of endangered wild flora and fauna as well as the specific illegal acts committed against them that have long and largely been ignored by criminology The author provides a fresh look at the topic by presenting it within a crime reduction framework an approach rarely taken by those with traditional criminological or conservation backgrounds demonstrating how an innovative strategy to reduce illegal market activities can simultaneously further the conservation of these endangered species International treaties national and domestic laws and international policing efforts pertaining to crimes involving endangered species are also examined

Manusya ,2004 SPAFA Journal ,1999 Elephant Welfare in Global Tourism Eric Laws,David W. Knight,Timothy Lee,Kom Campiranon,Bongkosh Rittichainuwat,Ann Suwaree Ashton,John Koldowski,Melody Zhirui Zhou,2025-05-30 At the centre of the elephant tourism industry lie two profound challenges the delicate balance between income and compassion and the severe threats to the survival of all remaining elephant species Trained elephants exchange hands for staggering sums reaching up to 100 000 each yet the colossal appetites of the herds with each elephant devouring over 100 kilograms of sustenance daily pose formidable economic challenges for camp owners An elephant camp s revenue is dependent on tourism with a complex web of specialist businesses local and international large and small contracted to recruit and enable visitors This results in competition focused mainly on price and profitability considerations The inadequacies of these business networks and of the administrative controls within which they operate were demonstrated during the complete shutdown of elephant tourism venues in early 2020 due to COVID 19 This authoritative text analyses elephants vulnerabilities providing an inspiring call to action for a more compassionate coexistence between elephants and the stakeholders responsible for their individual and herd welfare and survival Elephant Welfare in Global Tourism is intended for managers professionals and administrators of elephant camps refuges and rescue centres and for NGOs providing advice and support Academic researchers on wildlife may find inspiration for suitable topics and examples of current methodologies Traditions of Knowledge in Southeast Asia ,2004 Papers presented at the Conference on Traditions of Knowledge in Southeast Asia 17 19 December Rangoon Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor,2008-06-10 The Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature originally published in 2005 is a landmark work in the burgeoning field of religion and nature It covers a vast and interdisciplinary range of material from thinkers to religious traditions and beyond with clarity and style Widely praised by reviewers and the recipient of two reference work awards since its publication see www.religionandnature.com ern this new more affordable version is a must have book for anyone interested in the manifold and fascinating links between religion and nature in all their many senses Ghosts of the Past in Southern Thailand Anthony Reid,Barbara Watson Andaya,Geoff Wade,Azyumardi Azra,Numan Hayimasae,Christopher Joll,Francis R. Bradley,Philip King,Dennis Walker,Kobkua Suwannathat-Pian,Ik A. Mansurnoor,Duncan McCargo,2013-01-01 At the heart of the on going armed conflict in southern Thailand is a fundamental disagreement about the history of relations between the Patani Malays and the Thai kingdom While the Thai royalist nationalist version of history regards Patani as part of that kingdom since time immemorial Patani Malay nationalists look back to a golden age when the Sultanate of Patani was an independent prosperous trading state and a renowned center for Islamic education and scholarship in Southeast Asia a time before it was defeated broken up and brought under the control of the Thai state While still influential in recent years these diametrically opposed views of the past have begun to make way for more nuanced and varied interpretations Patani scholars intellectuals and students now explore their history more freely and confidently than in the past while the once rigid Thai nationalist narrative is open to more pluralistic interpretations There is growing interaction and dialogue between historians writing in Thai Malay and English and engagement with sources and scholarship in other languages including Chinese and Arabic In The Ghosts of the Past in Southern Thailand 13 scholars who have worked on this sensitive region evaluate the current state of current historical writing about the Patani Malays of southern Thailand The essays in this book demonstrate that an understanding of the conflict must take into account the historical dimensions of relations between Patani and the Thai kingdom and the ongoing influence of these perceptions on Thai state officials militants and the local population Southeast Asian Ecocriticism John Charles Ryan, 2017-11-08 Southeast Asian Ecocriticism presents a timely exploration of the rapidly expanding field of ecocriticism through its devotion to the writers creators theorists traditions concerns and landscapes of Southeast Asian countries While ecocritics have begun to turn their attention to East and South Asian contexts and particularly to Chinese and Indian cultural productions less emphasis has been placed on the diverse environmental traditions of Southeast Asia Building on recent scholarship in Asian ecocriticism the book gives prominence to the range of theoretical models and practical approaches employed by scholars based within and located outside of the Southeast region Consisting of twelve chapters Southeast Asian Ecocriticism includes contributions on the ecological prose poetry cinema and music of Indonesia Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam The authors emphasize the transnational exchanges of materials technologies texts motifs and ideas between Southeast Asian countries and Australia England Taiwan Formosa and the United States From environmental hermeneutics postcolonial studies indigenous studies and ecofeminism to critical plant studies ecopoetics and ecopedagogy the edited collection embodies the dynamic breadth of interdisciplinary environmental scholarship today Southeast Asian Ecocriticism foregrounds the theories practices and prospects of ecocriticism in the region The volume opens up new directions and reveals fresh possibilities not only for ecocritical scholarship in Southeast Asia but for a comparative environmental criticism that transcends political boundaries and national canons The volume highlights the important role of literature in heightening awareness of ecological issues at local regional and global scales The
