national bestseller now revised and updated with a new Epilogue Now aged 75 Peter C Newman at last tells the story of his stranger than fiction life Try to keep up as we follow his many lives as a pampered child in a Czech chateau a Jewish kid in short pants being machine gunned by Nazi fighter planes on the beach at Biarritz en route to the last ship to escape from France in 1940 as a refugee on an Ontario farm as an outsider on a scholarship at Upper Canada College as a Financial Post journalist then an author whose Renegade in Power made Canadian politics dramatic and disrespectfully exciting for the first time as the man who revealed the secrets of the rulers of the Canadian business world in The Canadian Establishment and other huge business success stories including The Establishment Man on Conrad Black or the millionaire who turned his back on business books and tackled Canadian history Company of Adventurers and other triumphs in a career where his work has dominated the bestseller lists in politics business history and current affairs In the midst of all this were his years at the Toronto Star and Maclean s where as editor he took the magazine weekly a huge accomplishment He is still a legend there where his columns continue to run He knew and wrote about every prime minister from Louis St Laurent to Paul Martin and every prominent Canadian hero or villain in between Yet his most interesting character is Peter C Newman Incredibly this central figure known to millions of Canadians sees himself as a perennial outsider In personal terms the rich little Czech boy whose nannies never stayed talks frankly about his marriages and the women he has known before his ultimate marriage to his beloved Alvy His enthusiasms from jazz to the Canadian Navy not to mention his adventures on his beloved sailboat make for a rich portrait of an astonishing character one who never stops being controversial *Monthly
