Goodnight Children Everywhere Andy Andrews,Pat Fawcett,1990 Goodnight Children, Everywhere Rose McNamara-Wright,1998 Life after World War I was carefree and full of gaiety and cabaret and for the upper and middle classes the emphasis was on pleasure But all good things come to an end and by the 1930s life was once again very hard There was now deep depression over England and most of Europe By 1939 England was at war with Germany it was to last six years This book has been written for anyone who lived through the six years of World War II It is written from the memory of a young London girl who was six when the war started She recounts what happened before and during the war what happened when the war ended and the terrible consequences Goodnight Children Everywhere and Other Plays Richard Nelson,2004 First new U S collection of Richard Nelson s work in 20 years Goodnight Children, Everywhere Monica B. Morris,2009 For the many children torn from their families taken miles from home and placed with strangers the evacuation at the outbreak of the Second World War was a life changing experience Here children at the time recall their poignant memories of being labelled lined up and taken away Blitz Families Penny Starns,2011-11-30 The mass evacuation of children and new and expectant mothers during the Second World War is well documented But over fifty per cent of children were not evacuated during the War and it is these young people who offer an unrivalled view of what life was like during the bombing raids in Britain s cities In Blitz Families Penny Starns takes a new look at the children whose parents refused to bow to official pressure and kept their beloved children with them throughout the War As she documents family after family which made this difficult decision she uncovers tales of the deprivation criminality and disease of life in the city and conversely the surprising relative emotional and physical wellbeing of those who lived through the Blitz compared to their evacuee counterparts Because of their unique position at the heart of the action these forgotten children offer us a priceless insight into the true grit and reality of the Blitz SERMONS preached at Sutton-on-Sea, 2014-2020 Arthur Eedle,
