historical attempt to theorize the idiosyncratic character of German Gothic sculpture much of which has never been fully documented and provides the first English language survey of the historiography of these works Jan van Eyck Craig Harbison, 2012-01-01 The surviving work of Flemish painter Jan van Eyck c 1395 1441 consists of a series of painstakingly detailed oil paintings of astonishing verisimilitude Most explanations of the meanings behind these paintings have been grounded in a disguised religious symbolism that critics have insisted is foremost But in Jan van Eyck Craig Harbison sets aside these explanations and turns instead to the neglected human dimension he finds clearly present in these works Harbison investigates the personal histories of the true models and participants who sat for such masterpieces as the Virgin and Child and the Arnolfini Double Portrait This revised and expanded edition includes many illustrations and reveals how van Eyck presented his contemporaries with a more subtle and complex view of the value of appearances as a route to understanding the meaning of life The Grove Encyclopedia of Northern Renaissance Art Gordon Campbell, 2009-11-26 The Grove Encyclopedia of Northern Renaissance Art GENR deals with all aspects of Northern Renaissance art ranging from artists architecture and patrons to the cities and centres of production vital to the flourishing of art in this period Drawing upon the unsurpassed scholarship in The Dictionary of Art and adding dozens of new entries GENR is a comprehensive reference resource on this important area Identity by Design Georgia Butina-Watson, Ian Bentley, 2007-06-07 In a world of increasing globalisation where one high street becomes interchangeable with the next Identity by Design addresses the idea of place making and the concept of identity looking at how these things can be considered as an integral part of the design process Structured around a series of case studies including Prague Mexico Malaysia and Boston the authors discuss an array of design approaches to explain and define the complex interrelated concepts The concluding sections of the book suggest ideas for practical application in future design processes With full colour images throughout this book takes the discussion of place identity to the next level and will be valuable reading for all architects urban designers planners and landscape architects A History of Architecture in All Countries James Fergusson, 1874 A History of Architecture in All Countries, from the Earliest Times to the Present Day: 2. provides just such an analysis focusing on the Catholic Church in interwar Austria Czechoslovakia and Hungary A powerful institution in the Habsburg Empire the Catholic Church continued to be a central social political and cultural agent after 1918 working in alliance with political parties and national governments to promote visions of a new national culture As a result church building took on an important ideological and political function Rampley's study is set against the backdrop of two interrelated issues the role of architecture in the Catholic Church's response to an increasingly secular modernity and church architecture as part of the Church's attempts to shape social and political life in the states that emerged after the collapse of Austria Hungary Rampley also examines the aesthetic cultural and political contexts that informed architectural projects including the conflict between Catholicism and social democracy the embrace of fascism Catholic theories of technology and discourses of regionalism and ruralism In bringing to light an untold chapter in the history of modern architecture this book also engages in methodological reflection on the implications of the study of modern church architecture for the historiography of modernism This book will appeal to students and scholars of architectural history religious and political history and interwar Central European history
