El Saman De Gfere:

The Necromantic State Irina R Troconis, 2025-02-21 In the spring of 2013 television across Venezuela announced the death of then president Hugo Chávez leader of the Bolivarian Revolution and key political actor in Latin America's turn to the left Chávez's death however was not the end of Chávez's life In The Necromantic State Irina R Troconis examines how Chávez as a specter has lingered in Venezuela's public private and digital spaces Focusing on contemporary Venezuela and drawing from a diverse corpus that includes tattoos toys memes graffiti and a hologram haunting the streets of downtown Caracas Troconis contends that in moments of failed transitions political tensions and crises of legitimacy the state brings the dead back to life to negotiate the terms of its survival By showing how this necromantic performance enables the state's material and visual manifestations in public and private spaces Troconis untangles a sociopolitical moment in which the ghostly acts as the affective social and political force that grounds state authority and ensures the preservation of the status quo as it circumscribes acts of political imagination and limits popular resistance Fuentes documentales y críticas de las artes plásticas venezolanas Roldán Esteva Grillet, 2001

Why States Recover Greg Mills, 2015-01-03 State failure takes many forms Somalia offers one extreme The country's prolonged civil war led to the collapse of central authority with state control devolving to warlord-led factions that competed for the spoils of local commerce political power and international aid Malawi on the other hand is at the other end of the scale During President Bingu's second term in office the country's economy collapsed as a result of poor policies and Bingu's brand of personal politics On the surface Malawi's economy seemed largely stable underneath however the polity was fractured and the economy broken In between these two extremes of state failure are all manner of examples many of which Mills explores in the fascinating and profoundly personal Why States Recover Throughout he returns to his key questions how do countries recover What roles should both insiders and outsiders play to aid that process Drawing on research in more than thirty countries and incorporating interviews with a dozen leaders Mills examines state failure and identifies instances of recovery in Latin America Asia and Africa For anyone interested in the reasons behind states failure and remedies to ensure future economic stability it is important reading Unamuno a Orillas Del Bidasoa Isidoro de Fagoaga, 1964
