Literature and Politics in the Central American Revolutions

John Beverley, Marc Zimmerman, 2014-02-19 This book began in what seemed like a counterfactual intuition that what had been happening in Nicaraguan poetry was essential to the victory of the Nicaraguan Revolution write John Beverley and Marc Zimmerman In our own postmodern North American culture we are long past thinking of literature as mattering much at all in the real world so how could this be This study sets out to answer that question by showing how literature has been an agent of the revolutionary process in Nicaragua El Salvador and Guatemala The book begins by discussing theory about the relationship between literature ideology and politics and charts the development of a regional system of political poetry beginning in the late nineteenth century and culminating in late twentieth century writers In this context Ernesto Cardenal of Nicaragua Roque Dalton of El Salvador and Otto Ren Castillo of Guatemala are among the poets who receive detailed attention

The Far Away Brothers Lauren Markham, 2018-05-22 The deeply reported story of identical twin brothers who escape El Salvador s violence to build new lives in California fighting to survive to stay and to belong Growing up in rural El Salvador in the wake of the civil war the United States was a distant fantasy to identical twins Ernesto and Raul Flores until at age seventeen a deadly threat from the region's brutal gangs forces them to flee the only home they've ever known. In this urgent chronicle of contemporary immigration, journalist Lauren Markham follows the Flores twins as they make their way across the Rio Grande and the Texas desert into the hands of immigration authorities and from there to their estranged older brother in Oakland, CA. Soon these unaccompanied minors are navigating school in a new language, working to pay down their mounting coyote debt and facing their day in immigration court while also encountering the triumphs and pitfalls of teenage life with only each other for support. With intimate access and breathtaking range, Markham offers an unforgettable testament to the migrant experience.

The Palgrave Handbook of Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2020-09-04. This book offers a comprehensive guide to global literary engagement with the Cold War. Eschewing the common focus on national cultures, the collection defines Cold War literature as an international current focused on the military and ideological conflicts of the age and characterised by styles and approaches that transcended national borders. Drawing on specialists from across the world, the volume analyses the period's fiction, poetry, drama, and autobiographical writings in three sections: dominant concerns (socialism, decolonisation, nuclearism, propaganda, censorship, espionage, common genres, postmodernism, socialism, realism, dystopianism, migrant poetry, science fiction, testimonial writing), and regional cultures (Asia, Africa, Oceania, Europe, and the Americas). In doing so, the volume forms a landmark contribution to Cold War literary studies, which will appeal to all those working on literature of the 1945-1989 period, including specialists in comparative literature, postcolonial literature, contemporary literature, and regional literature.

The Real Thing Georg M. Gugelberger, 1996. Presented as the authentic testimony of the disenfranchised, the colonized, and the oppressed, testimonio has in the last two decades emerged as one of the most significant genres of Latin America's post-boom literature. In the political battles that have taken place around the formation of the canon, the testimonio holds a special place: no other single genre of literature has taken up such a large part of current debate. Initially hailed in the 1970s as a genuine form of resistance literature, testimonio has since undergone a significant change in its critical reception. The essays in The Real Thing analyze the testimonio, its history, and its place in contemporary consciousness. Although the literature of testimony arose on the margins of institutional power and its ends were in large part political change, the canonization of testimonio by the academic Left has moved it from margin to center, ironically bringing about the institutionalization of its transgressive and counter-hegemonic qualities. Discussing Latin American works ranging from Salvadorian writer Roque Dalton's Miguel Marmol to Rigoberta Menchu's work that earned its author a Nobel Prize, this collection explores how critical writing about testimonio has turned into discourse about the institution of academia, the canon, postmodernism, and postcolonialism, and the status of Latin American studies generally Contributors John Beverley Santiago Col s Georg M Gugelberger Barbara Harlow Fredric Jameson Alberto Moreiras Margaret Randall Javier Sanjines Elzbieta Sklodowska Doris Sommer Gareth Williams George Y dice Marc Zimmerman     Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith,1997-03-26 A comprehensive encyclopedic guide to the authors works and topics crucial to the literature of Central and South America and the Caribbean the Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature includes over 400 entries written by experts in the field of Latin American studies Most entries are of 1500 words but the encyclopedia also includes survey articles of up to 10 000 words on the literature of individual countries of the colonial period and of ethnic minorities including the Hispanic communities in the United States Besides presenting and illuminating the traditional canon the encyclopedia also stresses the contribution made by women authors and by contemporary writers Outstanding Reference Source Outstanding Reference Book     Concise Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith,2014-01-14 The Concise Encyclopedia includes all entries on topics and countries cited by many reviewers as being among the best entries in the book entries on the 50 leading writers in Latin America from colonial times to the present and detailed articles on some 50 important works in this literature those who read and studied in the English speaking world     Guerrilla Poems of El Salvador Claribel Alegría,Darwin J. El Salvador Ralph Lee Woodward, 1988 Coffee and Power Jeffery M. Paige, 1997 In the revolutionary decade between 1979 and 1992 it would have been difficult to find three political systems as different as death squad dominated El Salvador peaceful social democratic Costa Rica and revolutionary Sandinista Nicaragua Yet when the fighting was finally ended by a peace plan initiated by Costa Rica's President Oscar Arias all three had found a common destination in democracy and free markets To explain this extraordinary turn of events is the task of this landmark book which fuses political economy and cultural analysis Both the divergent political histories and their convergent outcome were shaped by a single commodity that has dominated these export economies from the nineteenth century to the present coffee Jeffery Paige shows that the crises of the 1980s had their roots in the economic and political crises of the 1930s when the revolutionary left challenged the ruling coffee elites of all three countries He interweaves and compares the history economics and class structures of the three countries thus clarifying the course of recent struggles The heart of the book is his conversations with sixty two leaders of fifty eight elite dynasties who for the first time tell their own stories of the experience of Central American revolution Paige's analysis challenges not only Barrington Moore's influential theory of dictatorship and democracy but also contemporary approaches to transitions to democracy It also shows that a focus on either political economy or culture alone cannot account for the transformation of elite ideology and that revolution in Central America is deeply rooted in the personal familial and class histories of the coffee elites
