The International World of Electronic Media Lynne S. Gross, 1995 THE INTERNATIONAL WORLD OF ELECTRONIC MEDIA offers a fresh contemporary look at electronic media systems around the world Each chapter focuses on a specific country from Saudi Arabia to Russia to Japan and is written by an expert who has lived worked in and or taught courses on the media in the country about which he or she writes These chapter authors include such noted international communication scholars as Douglas Boyd and Joseph Straubhaar The book follows a consistent structure throughout making it particularly easy for students and instructors to compare and contrast key countries and their media systems In addition regional overviews written by the book s editor offer a broader perspective on each country discussed and how similar or different that country is from others in its geographical area

Your Country, Our War Katherine A. Brown, 2019-02-01 Based on extensive fieldwork in Afghanistan and eight years of interviews this book reviews the dynamics between Afghan and U S journalists and the global diplomatic power of the American press within the context of the post 9 11 era

The African and Conscientization Christian C. Anyanwu, 2012-01-10 The withdrawal of imperial colonizers from Africa in the second half of the 20th century precipitated the need for newly independent African nations to establish political economic and social structures that would ensure the development of cohesive stable and functional nations While Africans yearned for independence once granted the challenges of nation building became apparent immediately Nigeria like many African nations has stumbled through the early postcolonial period with no clear post colonial direction dashing the hopes of its people and undermining confidence in its future This book makes the case that the protracted decades of underdevelopment in Africa and especially Nigeria is traceable to a crisis of leadership that has crystallized in the institutionalization of organized corruption as part of its professional ethos It argues that as a direct consequence of such practices over several decades the population has been dehumanized The situation of Africa in general and Nigeria in particular has been deemed so inimical and colossal that Justice Oputas panel advised a program of moral action from kindergarten right through to the entire polity Report of the Human Rights Violations Investigation Commission 2002 This is an indictment on the Nigerian population and rightly so because for more than 40 years after independence the country has been through a spiraling crisis in leadership and corruption such that massive looting of the national treasure is unprecedented in the history of developing countries So many attempts have been made in search of national ideology that might spur development This writer is proposing in this vein the implementation of a Conscientization philosophy similar to Paulo Freires as a viable ideology that would arrest and reverse the deteriorating situation Freires thought was influenced largely by socio Economic and political situations in Brazil These same ugly and dehumanizing conditions are now generally characteristic of Nigeria Hence Freires education as practice of freedom is very relevant to the Nigerian situation This dissertation elaborates how to develop and implement the Conscientization philosophy and shows why it would be extraordinarily appropriate in Nigeria in such a way as to contribute to the good society

The Press and the Decline of Democracy Robert G. Picard, 1985-12-06 The author discusses the role of economic concentration in limiting public access to information and reducing opportunities for public discourse Picard examines the government policies that have contributed to the erosion of democratic participation and have permitted the growth of large commercial press entities unobstructed by anti trust provisions He relates recent public policy responses to this problem to democratic socialist ideology and develops a social democratic theory of the press which draws upon ideas and policies found throughout the Western world Picard provides a democratic framework for understanding the changing nature of media economics and state press relations and offers proposals for achieving both a democratically functioning press and broader popular participation Routledge

Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies Gerard Delanty, 2012-05-23 Over the past two decades there has been great interest in cosmopolitanism across the human and social sciences Where earlier it had largely been a term associated with moral and political philosophy cosmopolitanism has now become a widely used term in the social sciences It is now integral to much of cultural political and social analysis This is the first comprehensive survey in one volume of the interdisciplinary field of cosmopolitan studies With over forty chapters written by leading scholars of cosmopolitanism this book reflects the broad reception of cosmopolitan thought in a wide variety of disciplines and across international borders Both comprehensive and innovative in the topics covered the Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies is divided into four sections major theoretical debates where the emphasis is on recent developments cultural topics in the social sciences the politics of cosmopolitanism major world varieties of cosmopolitanism The Handbook answers the need to take modern cosmopolitanism out of its exclusive western context and relate it to the historical experiences of other world cultures This is a major work in defining the emerging field of cosmopolitanism studies Throughout there is a strong emphasis on interdisciplinarity with essays covering philosophy literary theory history international relations anthropology communications studies and sociology The Handbook's clear and comprehensive style will appeal to a wide undergraduate audience across the social sciences and humanities Image, Perception, and the Making of U.S.-China Relations Hongshan Li, Zhaohui Hong, 1998

Image Perception and the Making of U S China Relations examines major events in the history of the relationship between the U S and China to show the development and effects of national images and perceptions These essays expose the effects of ideology as represented through foreign policy and the actions of leaders as well as the role of the media and governments in shaping public opinion and attitudes They show the evolution of the influential forces from the nineteenth century through the twentieth century In each country a small group of people has always controlled these forces by manipulating the power of the media and governments The nature of this situation changed national perceptions as power often moved from one small group to another As a result of manipulating the images and perceptions of each country these biased and untrue views have inevitably led to conflict between the two countries
