Element of Islamic Studies Allama S. Rizvi,1984-09-01 Philosophies of Islamic Education Mujaddad Zaman,Nadeem A. Memon,2016-03-31 The study of Islamic education has hitherto remained a tangential inquiry in the broader focus of Islamic Studies In the wake of this neglect a renaissance of sorts has occurred in recent years reconfiguring the importance of Islam s attitudes to knowledge learning and education as paramount in the study and appreciation of Islamic civilization Philosophies of Islamic Education stands in tandem to this call and takes a pioneering step in establishing the importance of its study for the educationalist academic and student alike Broken into four sections it deals with theological pedagogic institutional and contemporary issues reflecting the diverse and often competing notions and practices of Islamic education As a unique international collaboration bringing into conversation theologians historians philosophers teachers and sociologists of education Philosophies of Islamic Education intends to provide fresh means for conversing with contemporary debates in ethics secularization theory child psychology multiculturalism interfaith dialogue and moral education In doing so it hopes to offer an important and timely contribution to educational studies as well as give new insight for academia in terms of conceiving learning and education The Different aspects of Islamic culture Ali, Abdulrahim,Thiam, Iba Der,Talib, Yusof A.,2016-10-17 This series of volumes on the manifold facets of Islamic culture is intended to acquaint a very wide public with the theological bases of its faith the status of the individual and of society in the Islamic world its expansion since the Revelation its cultural manifestations in literature and the arts and finally Islam today between loyalty to its past and the new challenges of modernity The last 100 years of Islamic history are examined in the final volume although the approach is thematic rather than historical The period considered has seen European colonialism in most of the Islamic world and Islam has played a major role in the initiation and organization of resistance movements We survey the groupings and forms of co operation that have arisen since liberation from colonialism and investigate the political necessity and the moral stand that underlie the unity of the Islamic peoples Social and economic progress is reviewed and space is devoted to such topics as the ongoing problem of Palestine moves towards educational reform and the status of women in Islam As the Islamic world cannot be imagined in isolation this volume examines the attitude of contemporary Islam towards other religions and cultures and considers efforts aimed at achieving mutual understanding and coexistence in both Muslim and non Muslim countries

The different aspects of islamic culture UNESCO,2016-10-17 This series of volumes on the manifold facets of Islamic culture is intended to acquaint a very wide public with the theological bases of its faith the status of the individual and of society in the Islamic world its expansion since the revelation its cultural manifestations in literature and the arts and finally Islam today between loyalty to its past and the new challenges of modernity Muslim Institutions of Higher Education in Postcolonial Africa Mbaye Lo,Muhammed Haron,2016-01-26 Muslim Institutions of Higher Education in Postcolonial Africa examines the colonial discriminatory practices against Muslim education through control and dismissal and discusses the education reform movement of the post colonial experience

New Directions in Islamic Education Abdullah Sahin,2013-12-23 This ground breaking book is one of the most significant contributions made in recent years to Islamic education John M Hull University of Birmingham United Kingdom New Directions in Islamic Education is a radical rethinking of Islamic education in the modern world It explores the relationship between pedagogy and the formation of religious identities within Islamic education settings that are based in minority and majority Muslim contexts Abdullah Sahin PhD directs the Centre for Muslim Educational Thought and Practice and is the course leader for the MEd program in Islamic education at MIHE in Leicestershire United Kingdom A History of Islamic Schooling in North America Nadeem A.

Memon,2019-09-24 This insightful text challenges popular belief that faith based Islamic schools isolate Muslim learners impose dogmatic religious views and disregard academic excellence This book attempts to paint a starkly different picture Grounded in the premise that not all Islamic schools are the same the historical narratives illustrate varied visions and approaches to Islamic schooling that showcase a richness of educational thought and aspiration A History of Islamic Schooling in North America traces the growth and evolution of elementary and secondary private Islamic schools in Canada and the United States Intersecting narratives between schools established by indigenous African American Muslims as early as the 1930s with those established by immigrant Muslim communities in the 1970s demonstrate how and why Islamic Education is in a constant ongoing process of evolution renewal and adaptation Drawing on the voices perspectives and narratives of pioneers and visionaries who established the earliest Islamic schools chapters articulate why Islamic schools were established what distinguishes them from one another and why they continue to be important This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics teaching professionals in the fields of Islamic education religious studies multicultural education curriculum studies and faith based teacher education Islamic and Muslim Studies in Australia Halim Rane,2021-08-17 The eight articles published in this Special Issue present original empirical research using various methods of data collection and analysis in relation to topics that are pertinent to the study of Islam and Muslims in Australia The contributors include long serving scholars in the field mid career researchers and early career researchers who represent many of Australia s universities engaged in Islamic and Muslim studies including the Australian National University Charles Sturt University Deakin University Griffith University and the University of Newcastle The topics covered in this Special Issue include how Muslim Australians understand Islam Rane et al 2020 ethical and epistemological challenges facing Islamic and Muslim studies researchers Mansouri 2020 Islamic studies in Australia s university sector Keskin and Ozalp 2021 Muslim women s access to and participation in Australia s mosques Ghafournia 2020 religion belonging and active citizenship among Muslim youth in Australia Ozalp and ufurovi the responses of Muslim community organizations to Islamophobia Cheikh Hussain 2020 Muslim ethical elites Roose 2020 and the migration experiences of Hazara Afghans Parkes 2020 Court Cultures in the Muslim World Albrecht Fuess,Jan-Peter Hartung,2014-06-03 Courts and the complex phenomenon of the courtly society have received intensified interest in academic research over recent decades however the field of Islamic court culture has so far been overlooked This book provides a comparative perspective on the history of courtly culture in Muslim societies from the earliest times to the nineteenth century and presents an extensive collection of images of courtly life and architecture within the Muslim realm The thematic methodology employed by the contributors underlines their interdisciplinary and comprehensive approach to issues of politics and patronage from across the Islamic world stretching from Cordoba to India Themes range from the religious legitimacy of Muslim rulers terminologies for court culture in Oriental languages Muslim concepts of space for royal representation accessibility of rulers the role of royal patronage for Muslim scholars and artists to the growing influence of European courts as role models from the eighteenth century onwards Discussing specific terminologies for courts in Oriental languages and explaining them to the non specialist chapters describe the specific features of Muslim courts and point towards future research areas As such it fills this important gap in the existing literature in the areas of Islamic history religion and Islam in particular Global Perspectives on Teaching and Learning Paths in Islamic Education Huda,

Miftachul,Safar, Jimaain,Mohamed, Ahmad Kilani,Jasmi, Kamarul Azmi,Basiron, Bushrah,2019-07-26 The process of curriculum enhancement through various educational approaches aims to enhance quality assurance in the educational process itself In Islamic education traditional educational trends are enhanced by expanding the embodiment process on experiential learning to evaluate the achievement in creating outcomes that balance not only spirituality and morality but also quality of cognitive analytical performances Global Perspectives on Teaching and Learning Paths in Islamic Education is a comprehensive scholarly book that provides broad coverage on integrating emerging trends and technologies for developing learning paths within Islamic education Highlighting a wide range of topics such as digital ethics psychology and vocational education this book is ideal for instructors administrators principals curriculum designers professionals researchers academicians and students
