Tertiary comparison of the various objects of comparison found in the Mahabharata. An attempt is made here to present a detailed account of what we may call poetic expressions of the corpus. It is not a rhetorical discussion of the soul of the poetry of the Mahabharata. It rather aims at enumerating the symbolic alliterative paronomastic or repetitive linguistic features that beautify the body of the Mahabharata. Chapter 1 deals with the similes upamāna of the corpus. The arrangement of the sections is based on the fields from which the objects of comparison upamāna are collected. Chapters 2 through 8 deal with the metaphors. Chapter 9 presents some specimens of popular idioms found in the corpus arranged again according to the fields from which they are collected. Chapter 10 is the compilation of the passages representing typical figures of sound sabdalaṅkāras. To complete the study Chapter 11 analyzes passages representing the techniques of oral poetry. The Nature and Elements of Poetry Edmund Clarence Stedman, 1970
