Laos Malu McDonald,2016-10-22 For my Year 12 major project at Noosa Pengari Steiner School I decided to travel to remote tribal villages in Laos to learn about their traditional culture I decided on this project because I wanted to do something worthwhile that would challenge and interest me and hopefully others but also be able to assist people in ways which they find helpful I travelled to Laos for 1 month in March 2016 taking my mother Cara as my photographer and lived with tribespeople in some of the many remote Khmu and Hmong villages near Luang Prabang that have had barely any contact with westerners It was a very challenging inspiring and successful trip and an extraordinary experience I have gained valuable insights into tribal life in Laos some of which I share with you in this book The Elephants in the Room Martin Rowe,2013 Through the lens of Rowe s relationships with two Kenyan conservationists Wangari Maathai and Daphne Sheldrick this book surveys a number of prejudices that many of us who are fortunate to be born with the privileges attached to our skin color sex and access to resources don t like to deal with race misogyny and the legacy of empire By examining the two women s memoirs Unbowed and Love Life and Elephants both of which were launched following talks at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City these metaphorical elephants in the room are combined with a study of the exploitation of actual elephants on the continent of Africa and the iterations of memory that are disclosed or hidden in the writing of memoirs and the collecting of bones for museums Puffin Good Reading Guide for Children Ruskin Bond,2006-05 A comprehensive guide to fiction in English for readers aged four to sixteen The Puffin Good Reading Guide for Children is divided into three sections to suit every age group It has entries listing over 1000 books and is divided into categories with cross references so that children can read more in genres they like It includes both classics and the best of contemporary works and books from all over the world With an introduction by Ruskin Bond India s best known children s writer in English The Puffin Good Reading Guide is an invaluable resource for children who love books as well as for parents and friends looking for the right book for the young people in their lives The Indian Forester ,1899 *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
