OVER THE ABYSSAL EDGE Robert Jackson,2025-07-02 The musings held within this tome are not too vague but will invoke your mind to roam These are not the ravings of a madman

just a man often mad from just a peak that went badly of a person just sad These will cause you to wonder and make you look into your soul too they will leave you restless and wanting more concepts to chew There are no handholds within these pages at all just a view of a fall where my emotion writhes with a call Peer into the void and discover the beauty within you it lies not in the abyss but in the hand that holds on to you This is a journey through the shadows where a light understanding awaits unravel the mysteries where the brain does abate Embark on this odyssey it s a trip of just words it s a place of discovery just a perch for the birds      The Newcastle Commercials Ian S. Johnson,2021-12-08 The planning for the raising of what was to become 16th Service Battalion Northumberland Fusiliers started within two days of the outbreak of the war The initial efforts took on a more professional look within a month when the Newcastle Chambers of Commerce set about raising money and aiming to raise several battalions in response to Lord Kitchener s call for men The outcome was a Pals battalion the 1st Newcastle Commercials Arriving in France at the end of 1915 the battalion like so many others of its type had its first experience of a major action on the Somme on 1st July 1916 in its case in the forlorn attempt to capture the German front line village of Thiepval The outcome is well known a disaster that ravaged the battalion s ranks However the battalion was reinforced reorganized and took its part in actions at Ovillers and along the Ancre as the battle grinder on over the next four and a half months In 1917 it was involved in the advance on the Hindenburg Line and was then transferred to the North Sea coast with the intention of taking part in the daring plan to launch a major amphibious landing behind the German lines in the summer This was thwarted by a masterly pre emptive German counter stroke By the end of the year the battalion was engaged in operations in the northern part of the Salient after the Battle of Third Ypres Passchendaele had formally ended In early February 1918 the battalion was disbanded as part of a general reorganization of the BEF which saw divisions losing three of their twelve infantry battalions In outline it is a common story but as for all the Pals battalions its unusual origins and its very close connection to a local area in this case Newcastle provides an enduring fascination for today s generation Ian Johnson has worked extraordinarily hard to gather documents from members of the battalion letters diaries and recollections as well as numerous photographs He has prepared extensive appendices on its membership and its casualties The outcome is a fitting tribute to these young men from Newcastle men of a century ago who for whatever motive answered their country s call all too many of whom paid for it with their lives or their health      Supreme Court Appellate Division 2nd Dept.
