Empire of Water David Soll, 2013-03-26. Supplying water to millions is not simply an engineering and logistical challenge. As David Soll shows in his finely observed history of the nation's largest municipal water system, the task of providing water to New Yorkers transformed the natural and built environment of the city, its suburbs and distant rural watersheds. Almost as soon as New York City completed its first municipal water system in 1842, it began to expand the network, eventually reaching far into the Catskill Mountains, more than one hundred miles from the city. Empire of Water explores the history of New York City's water system from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty-first century, focusing on the geographical, environmental and political repercussions of the city's search for more water. Soll vividly recounts the profound environmental implications for both city and countryside. Some of the region's most prominent landmarks, such as the High Bridge across the Harlem River, Central Park's Great Lawn and the Ashokan Reservoir in Ulster County, have their origins in the city's water system. By tracing the evolution of the city's water conservation efforts and watershed management regime, Soll reveals the tremendous shifts in environmental practices and consciousness that occurred during the twentieth century. Few episodes better capture the long-standing upstate-downstate divide in New York than the story of how mountain water came to flow from spigots in Brooklyn and Manhattan. Soll concludes by focusing on the landmark watershed protection agreement signed in 1997 between the city, watershed residents, environmental organizations and the state and federal governments. After decades of rancor between the city and Catskill residents, the two sides set aside their differences to forge a new model of environmental stewardship. His account of this unlikely environmental success story offers a behind-the-scenes perspective on the nation's most ambitious and wide-ranging watershed protection program.

The Catskills Stephen M. Silverman, Raphael D. Silver, 2015-10-27. The Catskills Cat Creek in Dutch America's original frontier, northwest of New York City, with its seven hundred thousand acres of forest land preserve and its five counties—Delaware, Greene, Sullivan, Ulster, Schoharie—America's first great vacationland, the subject of the nineteenth century Hudson River School paintings that captured the almost godlike majesty of the mountains and landscapes the skies waterfalls pastures cliffs refuge and home to poets and gangsters tycoons and politicians preachers and outlaws musicians and spiritualists outcasts and rebels Stephen Silverman and Raphael Silver tell of the turning points that made the Catskills so vital to the development of America Henry Hudson's first spotting the distant blue mountains in 1609 the New York State constitutional convention resulting in New York's own Declaration of Independence from Great Britain and its own constitution causing the ire of the invading British army the Catskills as a popular attraction in the 1800s with the construction of the Catskill Mountain House and its rugged imitators that offered WASP guests one hundred percent restricted accommodations Hebrews will knock vainly for admission a policy that remained until the Catskills became the curative for tubercular patients sending real estate prices plummeting and the WASP enclave on to richer pastures Here are the gangsters Jack Legs Diamond and Dutch Schultz among them who sought refuge in the Catskill Mountains and the resorts that after World War II catered to upwardly mobile Jewish families giving rise to hundreds of hotels inspired by Grossinger's the original Disneyland with knishes the Concord Brown's Hotel Kutsher's Hotel and others in what became known as the Borscht Belt and Sour Cream Alps with their headliners from movies and radio Phil Silvers Eddie Cantor Milton Berle et al and others who learned their trade there among them Moss Hart who got his start organizing summer theatricals Sid Caesar Lenny Bruce Mel Brooks Woody Allen and Joan Rivers Here is a nineteenth century America turning away from England for its literary and artistic inspiration finding it instead in Washington Irving's Rip Van Winkle and his childhood recollections set in the Catskills in James Fenimore Cooper's adventure romances which provided a pastoral history describing the shift from a colonial to a nationalist mentality and in the canvases of Thomas Cole Asher B Durand Frederick Church and others that caught the grandeur of the wilderness and that gave texture color and form to Irving's and Cooper's imaginings Here are the entrepreneurs and financiers who saw the Catskills as a way to strike it rich plundering the resources that had been likened to creation the Catskills tanneries that supplied the boots and saddles for Union troops in the Civil War and the bluestone quarries whose excavated rock became the curbs and streets of the fast growing Eastern Seaboard Here are the Catskills brought fully to life in all of their intensity beauty vastness and lunacy
