Spare Parts Joshua Davis, 2014-12-02 Joshua Davis's Spare Parts now a major motion picture is a story about overcoming insurmountable odds and the young men who proved they were among the most patriotic and talented Americans in this country even as the country tried to kick them out Four undocumented Mexican American students two great teachers one robot building contest In 2004 four Latino teenagers arrived at the Marine Advanced Technology Education Robotics Competition at the University of California Santa Barbara They were born in Mexico but raised in Phoenix Arizona where they attended an underfunded public high school No one had ever suggested to Oscar Cristian Luis or Lorenzo that they might amount to much but two inspiring science teachers had convinced these impoverished undocumented kids from the desert who had never even seen the ocean that they should try to build an underwater robot And build a robot they did Their robot wasn't pretty especially compared to those of the competition They were going up against some of the best collegiate engineers in the country including a team from MIT backed by a 10 000 grant from ExxonMobil The Phoenix teenagers had scraped together less than 1 000 and built their robot out of scavenged parts This was never a level competition and yet against all odds they won But this is just the beginning for these four whose story which became a key inspiration to the DREAMers movement will go on to include first generation college graduations deportation bean picking in Mexico and service in Afghanistan Finalist for the J Anthony Lukas Book Prize New York Times Best Seller Parts Work for Trauma

a new start I would no longer be a hockey player I wouldn't even be an actual person totally off the grid I'd be a shadow fighting crime for an organization that's underground literally Do I want that life If I go back what kind of life would I have Probably one in prison orange The choice to join Underground is painful but necessary As my hockey coach always said though pain is weakness leaving the body I will not be powerless ever again Creating Slapshot Underground 2 I've left my old life behind and officially joined Underground It appears no one knows where I am or even if I'm still alive I don't know how I feel about that My friends thinking I'm dead leaves a hole in my heart but I'll drive myself crazy if I obsess about it So rather than allowing myself to wallow in self pity or anger about what's happened I'm throwing all my energy into training You would think that whole elite athlete thing would make everything easier but all these new techniques I need to master hand to hand combat weapons training surveillance procedures are kicking my ass For my whole life I've only had one identity Ethan hockey player Now that sense of self is gone forever slowly being replaced by my new identity Slapshot Surreal doesn't even begin to describe this transformation But the more I find out about the world around me the problems I ignored for the most part as I played a game for an obscene amount of money the more I want to make a difference This is not a game It's real life and I have the chance to be a hero It's going to take everything I have or have left to do it Initiation by Fire Underground 3 I have my first assignment helping track down a man targeting Cuban bodegas and then using an automatic rifle to massacre all those inside after they're attacked by a Cuban gang and his wife is killed Underground is tasked with figuring out who this dangerous man is and stopping him before he goes on another rampage It's the first time I've seen Underground in action and I have to admit it's exciting I feel that adrenaline rush I used to get right before I hit the ice And I loved that satisfied feeling of knowing I helped find justice for all the innocent people the man has murdered Lady Parts Kathryn D. Blanchard, Jane S. Webster, 2012-11-13 How might women in the Bible tell their stories if they were prompted to do so by Eve Ensler's controversial play The Vagina Monologues This collection imagines some answers to that question The monologues herein are written by a variety of authors including scholars undergraduates clergy and laywomen the content of the narratives reflects this variety being at times faithful or irreverent tragic or even funny All seek to give twenty first century voices to women in canonical texts including the Hebrew Bible Deuterocanonical books and New Testament who are often speechless nameless or otherwise marginalized Not for the faint of heart these monologues not only end the silences but also add flesh and bone to characters whose experiences have too easily been justified metaphorized or altogether ignored By naming the torn places in these women's stories this volume invites readers to encounter both the biblical characters and their contemporary interpreters with an attitude of compassionate listening Our hope is that such compassionate listening may contribute not only to more just readings of sacred texts but also to the mission of Eve Ensler and V Day to end global violence against women and girls Big Parts Shane Connaughton, 2009-02-02 Chance : a tale in two parts ; in two volumes. 2 Joseph Conrad, 1914 Inquiry Into the Procurement of Automotive Spare
