Environmental Communication and Travel Journalism Lyn McGaurr, 2015-07-16 Travel journalism about natural attractions is environmental communication at the cusp of consumerism and concern Countries and regions that market forests rivers and wildlife to international tourists drive place of origin brand recognition that benefits exporters in other sectors Place branding in such destinations is not just PR for environmentally sustainable development and consumption but also a political enterprise Environmental Communication and Travel Journalism considers tourism public relations as elite reputation management and applies models of political conflict and source media relations to the analysis of the soft genre of travel journalism The book seeks to understand how in whose interests and against what odds discourses of cosmopolitanism and place branding influence the way travel journalists represent vulnerable and contested environments Informed by interviews with journalists and their sources Environmental Communication and Travel Journalism identifies and theorises networks cultures discursive strategies and multiple loyalties that can assist or interrupt flows of environmental concern in the cosmopolitan public sphere The book should be of interest to scholars of environmental communication environmental politics journalism tourism marketing and public relations Hong Kong Society Stephen WK Chiu, Kaxton YK Siu, 2022-02-23 This book borrows the concept of high definition from digital broadcasting to highlight our unique approach to Hong Kong society which gives a sharper image than analyses It intends to highlight contrasts with many common and taken for granted stories myths and representations of Hong Kong which often presented with a low level of detail lacking proper connections between grounded personal experiences and the macro social context With chapters covering various salient dimensions of Hong Kong's society including migration economy inequality identity and social movements our high definition approach presents images with high enough resolution to match multiple layers of experiences from walks of life of Hong Kong people contributing to an understanding of how global transformation impacts local people's experiences as well as Hong Kong's significance in the regional and global system Positioning Taiwan in a Global Context Bi-yu Chang, Pei-yin Lin, 2019-04-26 Positioning Taiwan in a Global Context examines modern Taiwanese culture through the prism of global cultural interactions Challenging the view of Taiwan as a product of transience and displacement it highlights Taiwan's subjectivity viewing the island as a site of a global development that epitomizes both resistance and negotiation in the process of cultural flows The fourteen contributions by an international team of scholars investigate the multi layered and multidirectional interplays between the island and the outside world exploring the impact of complex cultural encounters on the construction writing and rewriting of Taiwan in a global context Taking an interdisciplinary approach the topics covered range from Taiwanese literature cinema food culture and tourism to cultural geography colonial history and folk religion with comparisons made with Japan China Hong Kong the Philippines and the West Focusing on continuous cross cultural interplays this book affords readers a deeper understanding of identity politics and a better insight into the fluidity changeability and constructionist nature of culture As such it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Taiwan Studies and Cultural Studies as well as Asian film literature and popular culture Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2002 Lifestyle Journalism Folker Hanusch, 2014-03-05 Lifestyle journalism has experienced enormous growth in the media over the past two decades but scholars in the fields of journalism and communication studies have so far paid relatively little attention to a field that is still sometimes seen as not real journalism There is now an urgent need for in depth exploration and contextualisation of this field with its increasing relevance for 21st century consumer cultures For the first time this book presents a wide range of studies which have engaged with the field of lifestyle journalism in order to outline the various political economic social and cultural tensions within it Taking a comparative view the collection includes studies covering four continents including countries such as Australia China Norway Denmark Singapore the UK and the USA While keeping the broader lifestyle field in mind the chapters focus on a variety of sub fields such as travel music food health fashion and personal technology journalism This volume provides a fascinating account of the different facets of lifestyle journalism and charts the way forward for a more sustained analysis of the field This book was originally published as a special issue of Journalism Practice
