Elegies For Patrice:

Elegies for Patrice Kiarri T-H. Cheatwood, 1984 Congo Love Song Ira Dworkin, 2017-04-27 In his 1903 hit Congo Love Song James Weldon Johnson recounts a sweet if seemingly generic romance between two young Africans While the song's title may appear consistent with that narrative it also invokes the site of King Leopold II of Belgium's brutal colonial regime at a time when African Americans were playing a central role in a growing Congo reform movement In an era when popular vaudeville music frequently trafficked in racist language and imagery Congo Love Song emerges as one example of the many ways that African American activists intellectuals and artists called attention to colonialism in Africa In this book Ira Dworkin examines black Americans long cultural and political engagement with the Congo and its people Through studies of George Washington Williams Booker T Washington Pauline Hopkins Langston Hughes Malcolm X and other figures he brings to light a long standing relationship that challenges familiar presumptions about African American commitments to Africa Dworkin offers compelling new ways to understand how African American involvement in the Congo has helped shape anticolonialism black aesthetics and modern black nationalism Dudley Randall, Broadside Press, and the Black Arts Movement in Detroit, 1960-1995 Julius E. Thompson, 2005-02-15 In 1965 Dudley F Randall founded the Broadside Press a company devoted to publishing distributing and promoting the works of black poets and writers In so doing he became a major player in the civil rights movement Hundreds of black writers were given an outlet for their work and for their calls for equality and black identity Though Broadside was established on a minimal budget Randall's unique skills made the press successful He was trained as a librarian and had spent decades studying and writing poetry most importantly Randall was totally committed to the advancement of black literature The famous and relatively unknown sought out Broadside including such writers as Gwendolyn Brooks Margaret Walker Mae Jackson Lance Jeffers Etheridge Knight Sonia Sanchez Nikki Giovanni Audre Lorde and Sterling D Plumpp His story is one of battling to promote black identity and equality through literature and thus lifting the cultural lives of all Americans The Wisdom of the Ages Yaa Oforiwa, Akili Addae, 1995 Small Press Record of Books in Print , 1990 Poetics and Praxis 'After' Objectivism W. Scott Howard, Broc Rossell, 2018-08-15 Poetics and Praxis After Objectivism examines late twentieth and early twenty first century poetics and praxis within and against the dynamic disparate legacy of Objectivism and the Objectivists This is the first volume in the field to investigate the continuing relevance of the Objectivist ethos to poetic praxis in our time The book argues for a reconfiguration of Objectivism adding contingency to its historical values of sincerity and objectification within the context of the movement's development and disjunctions from 1931 to the present Essays and conversations from emerging and established poets and scholars engage a network of communities in the U S Canada and the U K shaped by contemporaneous oppositions as well as genealogical albeit discontinuous historicisms This book articulates Objectivism as an inclusively local international and interdisciplinary ethos and reclaims Objectivist poetics and praxis as modalities for contemporary writers concerned with radical integrations of aesthetics lyric subjectivities contingent disruption historical materialism and social activism The chapter authors and roundtable contributors reexamine foundational notions about Objectivism who the Objectivists were and are what Objectivism has been now is and what it might become delivering critiques of aesthetics and politics of race class and gender and of the literary and cultural history of the movement s development and disjunctions from 1931 to the present Contributors Rae Armantrout Julie Carr Amy De Ath Jeff Derksen Rachel Blau DuPlessis Graham Foust Alan Golding Jeanne Heuving Ruth Jennison David Lau Steve McCaffery Mark McMorris Chris Nealon Jenny Penberthy Robert Sheppard
