Solomonovič Gradštejn,1963 The Theory of Probability Hans Reichenbach,1971 Hans Reichenbach: Logical

Empiricist M.H. Salmon,2012-12-06 Logical empiricism not to be confused with logical positivism see pp 40 44 is a movement which has left an indelible mark on twentieth century philosophy Hans Reichenbach 1891 1953 was one of its found ers and one of its most productive advocates His sudden and untimely death in 1953 halted his work when he was at the height of his intellectual powers nevertheless he bequeathed to us a handsome philosophical inheritance At the present time twenty five years later we can survey our heritage and see to what extent we have been enriched The present collection of essays constitutes an effort to do just that to exhibit the scope and unity of Reichenbach s philosophy and its relevance to current philosophical issues There is no Nobel Prize in philosophy the closest analogue is a volume in The Library of Living Philosophers an honor which like the Nobel Prize cannot be awarded posthumously Among scientific philosophers Rudolf Carnap Albert Einstein Karl Popper and Bertrand Russell have been so honored Had Reichenbach lived longer he would have shared the honor with Carnap for at the time of his death a volume on Logical Empiricism treating the works of Carnap and Reichenbach was in its early stages of preparation In the volume which emerged Carnap wrote In 1953 when Reichenbach s creative activity was suddenly ended by his premature death our movement lost one of its most active leaders Direct and converse theorems Izrail' S. Gradštejn,1963 Direct and Converse Theorems I. S. Gradshtein,2014-05-16 Direct and

Thomas MacGreevey James Matthew Wilson,2023-09-12 This study constitutes the first ever definitive account of the life and work of Irish modernist poets Thomas MacGreevy Brian Coffey and Denis Devlin Apprenticed to the likes of W B Yeats T S Eliot James Joyce and Samuel Beckett all three writers worked at the center of modernist letters in England France and the United States but did so from a distinctive perspective All three writers wrote with a deep commitment to the intellectual life of Catholicism and saw the new movement in the arts as making possible for the first time a rich sacramental expression of the divine beauty in aesthetic form MacGreevy spent his life trying to voice the Augustinian vision he found in The City of God Coffey a student of neo Thomist philosopher Jacques Maritain married scholastic thought and a densely wrought poetics to give form and solution to the alienation of modern life Devlin contemplated the world with the eyes of Montaigne and the heart of Pascal as he searched for a poetry that could realize the divine presence in the experience of the modern person Taken together MacGreevy Coffey and Devlin exemplify the modern Catholic intellectual seeking to engage the modern world on its own terms while drawing the age toward fulfillment within the mystery and splendor of the Church They stand apart from their Irish contemporaries for their religious seriousness and cosmopolitan openness of European modernism They lay bare the theological potencies of modern art and do so with a sophistication and insight distinctive to themselves Although MacGreevy Coffey and Devlin have received considerable critical attention in the past this is the first book to study their work comprehensively from MacGreevy s early poems and essays on Joyce and Eliot to Coffey s essays in the neo scholastic philosophy of science and on to Devlin s late poetic attempts to realize Dante s divine vision in a Europe shattered by war and modern doubt
