Exploring the Mind of God: An Introduction to Shi'ite Legal Epistemology Hashim Bata, 2023-05-25 This book introduces readers to the legal epistemology that is advocated within Twelver Shi'ite u l al fiqh legal theory. It critically surveys the epistemological underpinnings upheld by post 19th century U l clerics that impel them to mainly deduce and interpret Sharia using scripture and literalist hermeneutical methods. An evaluation of these underpinnings uncovers the important juxtaposition that exists between the seminarian discourses of u l al fiqh and philosophy. The book hypothesises that u l al fiqh has both space and historical precedence to accept alternative epistemological theories that may enable orthodox Shi'ite clerics to display greater dynamism in deducing and interpreting Sharia.

Avicenna on the Ontology of Pure Quiddity Damien Janos, 2020-05-05 This study focuses on the metaphysics of the great Arabic philosopher Avicenna or Ibn Sina d. 1037 C.E. More specifically, it delves into Avicenna's theory of quiddity or essence, a topic which seized the attention of thinkers both during the medieval and modern periods. Building on recent contributions in Avicennian studies, this book proposes a new and comprehensive interpretation of Avicenna's theory of the pure quiddity, also known as the quiddity in itself and of its ontology. The study provides a careful philological analysis of key passages gleaned from the primary sources in Arabic and a close philosophical contextualization of Avicenna's doctrines in light of the legacy of ancient Greek philosophy in Islam and the early development of Arabic philosophy, falsafah and theology, kalām. The study pays particular attention to how Avicenna's theory of quiddity relates to the ancient Greek philosophical discussion about the universals or common things and Mu'tazilite ontology. Its main thesis is that Avicenna articulated a sophisticated doctrine of the ontology of essence in light of Greek and Bahshamite sources which decisively shaped subsequent intellectual history in Islam and the Latin West.

An Anthology of Philosophy in Persia, Vol. 5 S. H. Nasr, Mehdi Aminrazavi, 2014-11-17 Persia is home to one of the few civilizations in the world that has had a continuous tradition of philosophical thought lasting more than two and a half millennia. From the time Zoroaster brought the Gathas, the sacred scripture of Zoroastrianism, until today, it has had a philosophical tradition comprising diverse schools and various languages including Avestan and Pahlavi as well as Arabic and Persian. The West has seen surveys of Persian art and anthologies of Persian literature, but this work is the first to present a millennial tradition of philosophy in Persia in the form of translated selections and introductory sections for each period and figure. Existing translations have been used where possible, but most of the selections have been newly translated for this work, which with the help of the explanatory introductions makes possible an intellectual journey into a philosophical continent much of which has been uncharted for Westerners until now. The fifth and final volume of An Anthology of Philosophy in Persia deals with some seven centuries of Islamic thought stretching from the era following the Mongol invasion to the end of the Qajar period Organized around the cities which became the main centres of philosophical activity during this long period the volume is divided into three parts The School of Shiraz whose importance not only for Persia but also for Ottoman Turkey and Muslim India is only now being recognized The School of Isfahan which marks the integration of some eight centuries of Islamic thought and culminates with Mulla Sadra and finally The School of Tehran where traditional philosophy first encountered modern thought in Persia bringing this series into present times
