Elephant Memories Thirteen Years In The Life Of An Elephant Family:

Elephant Memories Cynthia Moss, 2000 Cynthia Moss has studied the elephants in Kenya's Amboseli National Park for over twenty seven years. Her long term research has revealed much of what we now know about these complex and intelligent animals. Here she chronicles the lives of the members of the T families led by matriarchs Teresia, Slit Ear, Torn Ear, Tania and Tuskless. With a new afterword catching up on the families and covering current conservation issues, Moss's story will continue to fascinate animal lovers. One is soon swept away by this Babar for adults. By the end one even begins to feel an aversion for people. One wants to curse human civilization and cry out: Now God stand up for the elephants. Christopher Lehmann Haupt, New York Times. Moss speaks to the general reader with charm as well as scientific authority. An elegantly written and ingeniously structured account. Raymond Sokolov, Wall Street Journal. Moss tells the story in a style so conversational that I felt like a privileged visitor riding beside her in her rickety Land Rover as she showed me around the park. Sarah Blaffer Hrdy, New York Times Book Review. A prose poem celebrating a species from which we could learn some moral as well as zoological lessons. Chicago Tribune.

Touching Space, Placing Touch Mark Paterson, Martin Dodge, 2016-02-24. Given that touch and touching is so central to everyday embodied existence, why has it been largely ignored by social scientists for so long? What is the place of touch in our mixed spaces of sociality, work, domesticity, recreation, creativity or care? What conceptual resources and academic languages can we reach towards when approaching tactile activities and somatic experiences through the body? How is this tactile landscape gendered? How is touch becoming revisited and revalidated in late capitalism through animal encounters, tourism, massage, beauty treatments, professional medicine, everyday spiritualities or the aseptic touch-free spaces of automated toilets? How is touch placed and valued within scholarly fieldwork and research itself integral as it is to the production of embodied epistemologies? How is touch involved in such aesthetic experiences as shaping objects in sand or encountering fleshly bodies within a painting? The goal of this edited collection Touching Space, Placing Touch is twofold: 1. To further advance theoretical and empirical understanding of touch in social science scholarship by focussing on the differential social and cultural meanings of touching and the places of touch; 2. To develop a multi-faceted and interdisciplinary explanation of touch in terms of individual and social life, personal experiences and tasks and their related cultural contexts. The twelve essays in this volume provide a rich combination of theoretical resources, methodological approaches and empirical investigation. Each chapter takes a distinct aspect of touch within a particular spatial context, exploring this through a mixture of sustained empirical work, critical theories of embodiment, philosophical and psychoanalytic approaches to gendered touch and touching or the relationship between visual and non-visual culture to articulate something of the variety and variability of touching experiences. The contributors are a mixture of established and emerging researchers within a growing interdisciplinary field of scholarship, yet the volume has a strong thematic identity and therefore represents the formative collection concerning the multiple senses of touch within social science scholarship at this time      Animals and Nature Rod Preece,2011-11-01 No one tradition alone offers a sufficient respect for other species Taken together they may offer a prospect for saner human animal relations From the book Western conceptions of objectivity and individuality have resulted in a readier appreciation of the worth of the animals and nature than has been recognized This provocative book takes issue with the popular view that the Western cultural tradition in contrast to Eastern and Aboriginal traditions has encouraged attitudes of domination and exploitation towards nature particularly animals Preece argues that the Western tradition has much to commend it and that descriptions of Aboriginal and Oriental orientations have often been misleadingly rosy simplified and codified according to current fashionable concepts Animals and Nature is the result of six years intensive study into comparative religion literature philosophy anthropology mythology and animal welfare science      The Evolved Nest Darcia Narvaez, PhD,G. A. Bradshaw, PhD,2023-08-08 A fascinating look into nurturing and parenting in the natural world supplemented with original illustrations For readers of Becoming Animal and World of Wonders A beautiful resource for Nature advocates parents to be Animal lovers and anyone who seeks to restore wellbeing on our planet The Evolved Nest reconnects us to lessons from the Animal world and shows us how to restore wellness in our families communities and lives Each of 10 chapters explores a different animal s parenting model sharing species specific adaptations that allow each to thrive in their evolved nests You ll learn How Wolves build an internal moral compass How Beavers foster a spirit of play in their children How Octopuses develop emotional and social intelligence How when and whether or not Brown Bears decide to have children What their lessons can teach you whether you re a parent grandparent caregiver or childfree Psychologists Drs Darcia Narvaez and Gay Bradshaw show us how each evolved nest offers inspiration for reexamining our own systems of nurturing understanding and caring for our young and each other Alongside beautiful illustrations stunning scientific facts and lessons in neuroscience psychology and evolutionary biology we learn to care deeper to restore our innate place within the natural world and fight for an ecology of life that supports our flourishing in balance with Nature alongside our human and non human family      Poaching and Militancy Binoy Kumar Behera,2019-01-24 Examines the problem of poaching of elephants for ivory and looks into the factors that propagate it      Death and Chronic Illness in the Family Peter Titelman,Sydney K. Reed,2018-07-27 What does it mean to be present and accounted for when a family member is facing chronic illness or death How does one define a self in relation to the ill or dying member and the family Rooted in Murray Bowen s family systems theory this edited volume provides conceptual ideas and applications useful to clinicians who work with families facing chronic illness or the death of a member The text is divided into four parts Part I provides a detailed overview of Bowen s theory perspectives on chronic illness and death and includes Murray Bowen s seminal essay Family Reaction to Death In Parts II and III chapter authors draw upon Bowen theory to intimately explore their families reactions to and experiences with death and chronic illness The final part uses case studies from contributors clinical practices to aid therapists in using Bowen systems perspectives in their work with clients The chapters in this volume provide a rich and broad range of clinical application and personal experience by professionals who have substantial knowledge of and training in Bowen theory Death and Chronic Illness in the Family is an essential resource for those interested in understanding the impact of death and loss in their professional work and in their personal lives

The Social Behavior of Older Animals Anne Innis Dagg, 2009-02-02 A groundbreaking study on the lives of senior mammals and birds from the aging of alphas to the role of grandmothers by the author of Animal Friendships How do young and old social animals view each other Are aged animals perceived by others as weaker Or wiser What is the relationship between age and power among social animals Taking a cue from Frans de Waal s seminal work examining the lives of chimpanzees Anne Innis Dagg in this pioneering study probes the lives of older mammals and birds Synthesizing the available scientific research and anecdotal evidence she explores how aging affects the lives and behavior of animals ranging from elk to elephants and gulls to gorillas examining such topics as longevity how others in a group view senior members in regard to leadership wisdom and teaching mating success interactions with mates and offspring how aging affects dominance changes in aggressive behavior and adaptability and death and dying At once instructive and compelling this theme spanning book reveals the complex nature of maturity in scores of social species and shows that animal behavior often displays the same diversity we find in ourselves Dagg s book should be a corrective to us all species that lose or ignore the contributions of their older members do so at their peril Literary Review of Canada Humans and chimps it turns out value age in sexual partners very differently In our species youth is prized but among chimps the reverse is the case The New York Review of Books

Extraterrestrial Altruism Douglas A. Vakoch, 2013-09-14 Extraterrestrial Altruism examines a basic assumption of the Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence SETI that extraterrestrials will be transmitting messages to us for our benefit This question of whether extraterrestrials will be altruistic has become increasingly important in recent years as SETI scientists have begun contemplating transmissions from Earth to make contact Technological civilizations that transmit signals for the benefit of others but with no immediate gain for themselves certainly seem to be altruistic But does this make biological sense Should we expect altruism to evolve throughout the cosmos or is this only wishful thinking Is it dangerous to send messages to other worlds as Stephen Hawking has suggested or might humankind benefit from an exchange with intelligence elsewhere in the galaxy Would extraterrestrial societies be based on different ethical principles or would we see commonalities with Earthly notions of morality Extraterrestrial Altruism explores these and related questions about the motivations of civilizations beyond Earth providing new insights that are critical for SETI Chapters are authored by leading scholars from diverse disciplines anthropology astronomy biology chemistry computer science cosmology engineering history of science law philosophy psychology public policy and sociology

The book is carefully edited by Douglas Vakoch Director of Interstellar Message Composition at the SETI Institute and professor of clinical psychology at the California Institute of Integral Studies The Foreword is by Frank Drake This interdisciplinary book will benefit everybody trying to understand whether evolution and ethics are unique to Earth or whether they are built into the fabric of the universe      Evolutionary Perspectives on Social Psychology Virgil Zeigler-Hill, Lisa L. M. Welling, Todd K. Shackelford, 2015-05-06 This wide ranging collection demonstrates the continuing impact of evolutionary thinking on social psychology research This perspective is explored in the larger context of social psychology which is divisible into several major areas including social cognition the self attitudes and attitude change interpersonal processes mating and relationships violence and aggression health and psychological adjustment and individual differences Within these domains chapters offer evolutionary insights into salient topics such as social identity prosocial behavior conformity feminism cyberpsychology and war Together these authors make a rigorous argument for the further integration of the two diverse and sometimes conflicting disciplines Among the topics covered How social psychology can be more cognitive without being less social How the self esteem system functions to resolve important interpersonal dilemmas Shared interests of social psychology and cultural evolution The evolution of stereotypes An adaptive socio ecological perspective on social competition and bullying Evolutionary game theory and personality Evolutionary Perspectives on Social Psychology has much to offer students and faculty in both fields as well as evolutionary scientists outside of psychology This volume can be used as a primary text in graduate courses and as a supplementary text in various upper level undergraduate courses
