Elephants Remember Jennifer O'Connell, 2022-11-01 The deep bond between Lawrence Anthony and the traumatized matriarch of the wild elephant herd he saved is at the heart of this story From the author/illustrator of The Eye of the Whale Tilbury House 2013 this nonfiction picture book tells the story of Lawrence Anthony and the deep bond he forged with the matriarch of the herd he saved at his animal reserve in South Africa When Lawrence died the matriarch led all the elephants from remote parts of the reserve in a procession to his home where they gathered to mourn him They returned on the same day at the same time for the next two years because elephants remember This moving story of human/elephant mutual love and respect will inspire readers of all ages

Elephant Talk Ann Downer, 2017-01-01 On a hot day in the African savannah a group of elephants searches for food While foraging they often lose sight of one another Yet at the end of the day in one coordinated movement the elephants suddenly regroup This coordinated movement and others like it has puzzled scientists and caused them to question how elephants communicate with each other Since the 1990s scientists have gathered significant data on elephant talk Biologists have determined that elephants use a complex system of communication of at least ten distinct sounds combined in many variations Researchers are now asking what do these sounds mean As scientists study the elephant sounds that humans can hear they are also identifying ways elephants communicate through nonverbal behaviors and making sounds too low for human ears Scientists have realized that elephants even receive messages by using their sensitive feet to feel vibrations in the ground All of these discoveries are helping elephant researchers better understand elephant behavior But the elephant s time as a wild animal is running out Threatened by habitat loss and illegally hunted for their ivory tusks elephants are on the brink of extinction Will understanding elephant talk be the key to saving the species School Library Journal ,2006 Heritage of Care Marion S.
