Edwardian Architecture Style And Technology:

Edwardian Architecture Richard A. Fellows,1995 Presents a new perspective on a fascinating and varied period in British architectural history

Structure and Style Michael Stratton,1997 This book looks at approaches to appraising and conserving mainstream architecture of the 20th century commercial buildings industrial buildings and housing

The Edwardian Sense Morna O'Neill,Michael Hatt,2010 This is the twentieth in a series of occasional volumes devoted to studies in British art published by the Yale Center for British Art and the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art and distributed by Yale University Press Book Jacket

The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl,Susan Wilson,2015 With over 6 000 entries this is the most authoritative dictionary of architectural history available

Victorian Perceptions of Renaissance Architecture Katherine Wheeler,2017-07-05 In the mid 1880s The Builder an influential British architectural journal published an article characterizing Renaissance architecture as a corrupt bastardization of the classical architecture of Greece and Rome By the turn of the century however the same journal praised the Renaissance architect Filippo Brunelleschi as the Christopher Columbus of modern architecture

Victorian Perceptions of Renaissance Architecture 1850 1914 examines these conflicting characterizations and reveals how the writing of architectural history was intimately tied to the rise of the professional architect and the formalization of architectural education in late nineteenth century Britain Drawing on a broad range of evidence including literary texts professional journals university curricula and census records Victorian Perceptions reframes works by seminal authors such as John Ruskin Walter Pater John Addington Symonds and Geoffrey Scott alongside those by architect authors such as William J Anderson and Reginald Blomfield within contemporary architectural debates Relevant for architectural historians as well as literary scholars and those in Victorian studies Victorian Perceptions reassesses the history of Renaissance architecture within the formation of a modern British architectural profession

The History and Architecture of Cardiff Civic Centre John B. Hilling,2016-05-20 History of the civic centre and how it came to be created Detailed architectural descriptions of all the buildings in the civic centre Specially prepared maps and plans showing how the civic centre developed over two centuries up to date and complete coverage of the subject including a history of the site over two centuries full descriptions of individual buildings and monuments

The Making of Our Urban Landscape Geoffrey Tyack,2022-03-02 Britain was the first country in the world to become an essentially urban county And England is still one of the most urbanized countries in the world The town and the city is the world that most of us inhabit and know best But what do we actually know about our urban world and how it was created The Making of the English Urban Landscape tells the story of our towns and cities and how they came into being over the last two millennia from Roman and Anglo Saxon times through the Norman Conquest and the later Middle Ages to the great rebuilding in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the polite townscapes of the eighteenth and the commercial and industrial towns and cities of the nineteenth and early twentieth century The final chapter then takes the story from the end of the Second World War to the present from the New Towns of the immediate post war era to the trendy converted warehouses of Shoreditch This is a book that will make the world you live in come alive If you are a town or a city dweller you are unlikely ever to look at the everyday world around you in quite the same way again

Experiencing Architecture in the Nineteenth Century Edward Gillin, H. Horatio Joyce, 2018-10-18 Bringing together fourteen original essays this collection opens up new perspectives on the architectural history of the nineteenth century by examining the buildings of the period through the lens of experience With a focus on the experience of the ordinary building user rather than simply on the intentions of the designer the book shows that new and important insights can be brought to our understanding of Victorian architecture The chapters present a range of ideas and new research some examining individual building case studies from grand hotels and clubhouses in New York to the parliament buildings of Westminster and others exploring conceptual questions about the nature of architectural experience whether sensory or otherwise Yet they share the premise that the idea of the experience of architecture took on a new and particular significance with the rise of industrial modernity and they examine what contemporary people both architects and non architects understood by this idea The insights in this volume extend beyond the study of Victorian architecture Together they suggest how experience might be used as a framework to produce a more convincingly historical account of the artefacts of architectural history

Edwardian Civic Buildings and Their Details Richard A. Fellows, 1999 Richard Fellows book explores the many influences on Edwardian architects New methods and techniques a mixture of tradition and progress as well as the influence of the arts and crafts movement are all analysed here in explaining this unique period of design Edwardian Civic Buildings and Their Details has a strong underlying purpose an attempt to increase appreciation of the subject and so arrest the decay decline and possible demolition of some important buildings Richard Fellows shows how the civic qualities most admired in Edwardian architecture were achieved in order to encourage those engaged in the process of building design and procurement to recapture the spirit if not the style of the years around the turn of the century Gain an insight into late nineteenth century and early twentieth century British architecture Learn about the major architectural issues from the philosophy of urban planning through to detail design Case studies of town and country halls and public libraries throughout England illustrate the evolution of the civic philosophy

History, Performance and Conservation Barry Bridgwood, Lindsay Lennie, 2013-09-13 Ideal for students of architectural technology this volume of the Technologies of Architecture series covers the technologies available and the processes necessary for the conservation of existing buildings and environments This book provides in a single text the tools for students to be able to evaluate such buildings as well as an extensive understanding of the mechanisms which cause their deterioration and knowledge of the technologies available to correct their status The ever higher standards set for buildings especially in energy conservation contexts demand that practitioners appreciate how the performance of existing structures can be enhanced which is also covered Considering the work of conservation within a holistic perspective and historical context this book is additionally invaluable for architecture and construction students Understanding Architecture Hazel Conway, Rowan Roenisch, 2005 A comprehensive introduction to architecture and architectural history and exceptional in its approach this book explores architecture in relation to history and the wider context of cultures conservation and the environment Reconstruction Neal Shasore, Jessica Kelly, 2023-02-23 Commendation the Colvin Prize 2023 Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain Reconstruction explores the impact of the First World War on the built environment examining the immediate and longer term aftermath of the Great War on the architecture of Britain and the British Empire during the interwar years While much attention has been paid by historians to post war architectural reconstruction after 1945 the earlier developments of the interwar period 1919 1939 have been comparatively overlooked This volume reveals how the architectural developments of this period not only provided important foundations for what happened after 1945 they are also of real significance in their own right Sixteen essays written by leading and emerging scholars bring together new and diverse approaches to the period a period of reconstruction fraught with the challenges of modernity and democratisation The collection considers the complex effects of reconstruction on design discourse practice and professionalism and deals with the full spectrum of architectural styles and approaches privileging neither Modernism nor traditional styles like the neo Georgian It brings to the fore social and political histories of the built environment and makes important postcolonial interventions into the architectural history of British Imperialism at home and in its far reaches in Cairo South Africa Australia and India A New England? G. R. Searle, 2005 G R Searle s narrative history breaks conventional chronological barriers to carry the reader from England in 1886 the apogee of the Victorian era with the nation poised to celebrate the empress queen s golden jubilee to 1918 as the war to end all wars drew to a close A New England? G. R. Searle, 2005-07-29 G R Searle s absorbing narrative history breaks conventional chronological barriers to carry the reader from England in 1886 the apogee of the Victorian era with the nation poised to celebrate the empress queen s golden jubilee to 1918 as the war to end all wars drew to a close leaving England to come to term with its price above all in terms of human life but also in the general sense that things would never be the same again This was an age of extremes a period of imperial pomp and circumstance with a political elite preoccupied with display and ceremony alongside the growing cult of the simple life the zenith of imperialism with its idealization of war on the one hand the start of the Labour Party a socialist renaissance and welfare politics on the other and a radical challenging of traditional gender stereotypes in the face of the prevailing cult of masculinity Under Professor Searle s historical microscope all the details of daily life spring into sharp relief Half forgotten figures such as Edward Carpenter Vesta Tilley and Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman take their place on stage beside Oscar Wilde the Pankhursts and Lloyd George Motoring and aviation to become such an intrinsic part of life within the next decades had their beginnings in this period as pastimes for the rich From the wretched slums of England s great cities to their bustling docks and factories from the grand portals of Westminster to the violent political challenges of the Ulster Unionists and the militant suffrage movement from Blackpool's tower and beach packed with holidaymakers to the trenches of the Western Front the energy creativity and often destructive turmoil of the years 1886-1918 are brought into focus in this magisterial history THE NEW OXFORD HISTORY OF ENGLAND The aim of the New Oxford History of England is to give an account of the development of the country over time It is hard to treat that development as just the history which unfolds within the precise boundaries of England and a mistake to suggest that this implies a neglect of the histories of the Scots Irish and Welsh Yet the institutional core of the story which runs from Anglo-Saxon times to our own is the story of a state structure built round the English monarchy and its effective successor the Crown in Parliament While the emphasis of individual volumes in the series will vary the ultimate outcome is intended to be a set of standard and authoritative histories embodying the scholarship of a generation

Understanding Architecture, Wolverhampton in 50 Buildings Steve Bower,2022-06-15 Explore the rich history of the West Midlands city of Wolverhampton in this guided tour through its most fascinating historic and modern buildings Artists' Impressions in Architectural Design Bob Giddings,Margaret Horne,2003-09-02 This book analyses the ways in which architects have presented their designs for clients and the public both historically and contemporarily Twentieth-century Architecture and Its Histories Louise Campbell,2000 A Wealth of Buildings: Marking the Rhythm of English History Richard Barras,2016-09-23 This two volume book explores how the great buildings of England bear witness to a thousand years of the nation's history In every age investment in iconic buildings reaches a climax when the prevailing mode of production is operating most effectively surplus wealth is most plentiful and the dominant class rules supreme During such periods of stability and prosperity the demand for new buildings is strong structural and stylistic innovations abound and there is fierce competition to build for lasting fame Each such climax produces a unique vintage of hegemonic buildings that are monuments to the wealth and power of those who ruled their world This second volume presents three case studies of iconic building investment from the eighteenth century to the present day During the eighteenth century the wealth of the great landed estates funded the golden age of country house building by aristocracy and gentry During the nineteenth century the Industrial Revolution unleashed an unprecedented wave of infrastructure investment and civic building by the ascendant capitalist class Since the late twentieth century the power of global financial capital has been symbolized by the relentless rise of city centre office towers A final chapter argues that these different forms of hegemonic building are a physical manifestation of the underlying rhythm of English history Imperial cities Felix Driver,David Gilbert,2017-03-01 Imperial cities explores the influence of imperialism in the landscapes of modern European cities including London Paris Rome Vienna Marseilles Glasgow and Seville Examines large scale architectural schemes and monuments including the Queen Victoria Memorial in London and the Vittoriano in Rome Focuses on imperial display throughout the city from spectacular exhibitions and ceremonies to more private displays of empire in suburban gardens Considers the changing cultural and political identities in the imperial city looking particularly at nationalism masculinity and anti imperialism
