Australian Evangelical Perspectives on Youth Ministry Ruth Lukabyo, 2023-12-06. This book is a unique contribution to the study of children's and youth ministry, displaying the rich theological thinking that is developing amongst Australian evangelical scholars. Many of the writers have previously presented at the Youthworks House conference, which promotes theological reflection for best practice in youth and children's ministry in a community of youth and children's ministers. The themes explored in this book are vitally important to pastors seeking to nurture young people as disciples of Jesus. Thirteen evangelical scholars answer questions such as: How can biblical theology shape a young person's view of themselves? What is the biblical definition of church, and how does this shape our understanding of intergenerational gatherings, family, and community? How should young Christians interact with the culture around them? And how do biblical teachings on sin, grace, and wisdom provide young people with the resources to live in today's world? You will be challenged to reconsider how theology and exegetical study of the Bible can mold your priorities, principles, and presumptions as you exercise ministry to and with young people. Evidence-Based Practices Bryan G. Cook, Melody Tankersley, Timothy J. Landrum, 2013-06-06. This volume focuses on evidence-based practices (EBPs) supported by sound research studies documenting their effectiveness with a target population. As such, EBPs have significant potential to improve the outcomes of learners with learning and behavioral disorders.
