Making Memory Alana M Vincent, 2014-11-27 The twentieth century has been called a century of horror Proof of that designation can be found in the vast and ever increasing volume of scholarly work on violence trauma memory and history across diverse academic disciplines This book demonstrates not only the ways in which the wars of the twentieth century have altered theological engagement and religious practice but also the degree to which religious ways of thinking have shaped the way we construct historical narratives Drawing on diverse sources from the Hebrew Bible to Commonwealth war graves from Greek tragedy to post Holocaust theology Alana M Vincent probes the intersections between past and present memory and identity religion and nationality The result is a book that defies categorization and offers no easy answers but instead pursues an agenda of theological realism holding out continued hope for the restoration of the world

Egon Eiermann (1904-1970) Egon Eiermann, Sonja Hildebrand, 2004 Egon Eiermann influenced postwar German architecture to an extent unrivalled by any other architect His rich architectural oeuvre is characterized by striking transparency sensitive response to materials high artistic standards and rigorous attention to design quality down to the very last detail Eiermann also created a number of successful furniture designs including his famous drawing table stand the SE 18 folding chair and the E 10 rattan lounge chair now known as the Eiermann chair Among Eiermann's best known buildings are the IBM headquarters in Stuttgart Vaihingen the Olivetti corporate center in Frankfurt am Main the former high rise office building for Members of the German Bundestag in Bonn and the Kaiser Wilhelm Gedächtniskirche in Berlin Eiermann was also a highly respected educator and architectural innovator During his tenure as a professor of architecture at the Technische Hochschule Karlsruhe he influenced an entire generation of young architects This volume considers his entire life's work

Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals Avery Library, 1995 German Architecture: 1960-1970 Wolfgang Pehnt, 1970 Dwell, 2005-04 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Design Bernhard E. Bürdek, 2015-08-31 For students of design professional product designers and anyone interested in design equally indispensable the fully revised and updated edition of the reference work on product design The book traces the history of product design and its current developments and presents the most important principles of design theory and methodology looking in particular at the communicative function of products and highlighting aspects such as corporate and service design design management strategic design interface interaction design and human design From the content Design and history The Bauhaus The Ulm School of Design The Example of Braun The Art of Design Design and Globalization Design and Methodology Epistemological Methods in Design Design and Theory Aspects of the Disciplinary Design Theory Design and its Context From Corporate Design to Service Design Product Language and Product Semiotics Architecture and Design Design and Society Design and Technological Progress

Modernism as Memory Kathleen James-Chakraborty, 2018-01-15 After World War II West Germans and West Berliners found ways of communicating both their recent sufferings and aspirations for stable communities through buildings that fused the ruins of historicist structures with new constructions rooted in the modernism of the 1910s and 20s As Modernism as Memory illustrates these postwar practices undergird the approaches later taken in influential structures created or renovated in Berlin following the fall of the Wall including the Jewish Museum and the Reichstag the New Museum and the Topography of Terror While others have characterized contemporary Berlin's museums and memorials as postmodern Kathleen James Chakraborty argues that these environments are examples of an architecture of modern memory that is much older more complex and historically contingent She reveals that churches and museums repaired and designed before 1989 in Dresden Hanover Munich Neveges Pforzheim Stuttgart and Weil am Rhein contributed to a modernist precedent for the relationship between German identity and the past developed since then in the Ruhr region and in Berlin Modernism as Memory demonstrates that how one remembers can be detached from what one remembers contrasting ruins with recollections of modernism to commemorate German suffering the Holocaust and the industrial revolution as well as new spaces for Islam in the country
