Raising Capital on Arab Equity Markets Lu'ayy Minwer Al-Rimawi, 2012-02-01 This first book of its kind discusses in particular the role of investor protection as regards disclosure when issuers are offering securities to the public with full descriptions of the securities markets and stock exchanges in seventeen Arab jurisdictions In two interrelated parts it examines both the regional macroeconomic matrix and a detailed case study that of Jordan in order to analyse the development and characteristics of an Arab regulatory model Among the important issues and topics arising in the course of the analysis are the following relevance of international regulatory standards to Arab securities markets mandatory versus voluntary securities disclosure the fundamentals of the Islamic financial system role of riba and gharar nature and impact of Shari'a's unquantifiable juridical risks on the modus operandi of Arab securities markets macroeconomic adjustment policies and structural adjustment programmes in several Arab countries recent economic and Arab capital markets impact in the wake of the Arab Spring extent of different countries reliance on Shari'a as a constitutional source constitutional challenges to the imposition of interest the need for the positive law to compel securities disclosure under Shari'a shareholders remedies when suing for fraud or negligent misstatements liability for misleading or inaccurate disclosure under the general law of the UK and a selected Arab jurisdiction prospectus liability under the statutory regime of the UK and an Arab regulatory regime bars to rescission of contract Comparative UK and Shari'a aspects and Arab UK regulatory agencies enforcement prosecutorial administrative and civil remedies The author closely examines various instruments deployed for conveying securities disclosure and dissemination of information and looks extensively at relevant rulings as enunciated by an Arab court of cassation He then constructs a model of an effective securities disclosure regime in order to provide better investor protection for shareholders under Shari'a Among the strengths of Dr Lu'ayy Minwer Al Rimawi's book is the fact that at all times he adopts a comparative approach not only as between different Arab systems but also with an appreciation of the legal position in the UK and the European Union and elsewhere The Hon Mr Justice Sir William Blair Q C High Court Judge in the UK and Chairman of the Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Tribunal As the first in depth discussion of the regulation of Arab capital markets in English with an eye to international standards and the policy issues involved and with attention focused on the central question of how the law can properly protect investors this book will commend itself to all those with an interest in securities markets in the Arab world

Connected in Cairo Mark Allen Peterson, 2011-05-06 For members of Cairo's upper classes cosmopolitanism is a form of social capital deployed whenever they acquire or consume transnational commodities or goods that are linked in the popular imagination to other more modern places In a series of thickly described and carefully contextualized case studies of Arabic children's magazines Pok mon private schools and popular films coffee shops and fast food restaurants Mark Allen Peterson describes the social practices that create class identities He traces these processes from childhood into adulthood examining how taste and style intersect with a changing educational system and economic liberalization Peterson reveals how uneasy many cosmopolitan Cairenes are with their new global identities and describes their efforts to root themselves in the local through religious nationalist or linguistic practices

Muslim Worldviews and Everyday Lives El-Sayed el-Aswad, 2012-07-13 el Aswad introduces the concepts of worldviews cosmologies of Muslims explaining that the different types of worldviews are not constructed solely by religious scholars or intellectual elite but are latent in Islamic tradition embedded in popular imagination and triggered through people's everyday interaction in various countries and communities He draws from a number of sources including in depth interviews and participant observation as well as government documents and oral history Through the perspectives of ethno cosmology emic interpretation of sacred tradition modernity folklore geography dream imagination hybridity and identity transformation he examines how culturally and religiously constructed images of the world influence the daily actions of people in various Muslim communities The worldviews of Sunnis Shi'as and Sufis are covered in turn and Muslims in the UAE Egypt Bahrain and suburban Detroit are the focus el Aswad also discusses the effects of Western attempts at imposing its essentially secular worldview through the process of globalization and how cyberspace has promoted connectivity among Muslim communities and especially in the United States opened up unlimited options and new possibilities

Trade, Investment, and Development in the Middle East and North Africa Dipak Das Gupta, Mustapha K.
