Founding Of The First International:

Founding of the First International (September-November 1864) Leonard Emil Mins, 1939 Founding of the First International Leonard Emil Mins, 1937 A collection of the major documents dealing with the foundation of the first International Publishers foreword Edited by L E Mins Printed in the Union of soviet socialist republics The Oxford Handbook of the History of Political Philosophy George Klosko, 2011-05-26 Fifty distinguished contributors survey the entire history of political philosophy They consider questions about how the subject should best be studied they examine historical periods and great theorists in their intellectual contexts and they discuss aspects of the subject that transcend periods such as democracy the state and imperialism Culture and International History Jessica C. E. Gienow-Hecht, Frank Schumacher, 2004 Combining the perspectives of 18 international scholars from Europe and the United States with a critical discussion of the role of culture in international relations this volume introduces recent trends in the study of Culture and International History It systematically explores the cultural dimension of international history mapping existing approaches and conceptual lenses for the study of cultural factors and thus hopes to sharpen the awareness for the cultural approach to international history among both American and non American scholars The first part provides a methodological introduction explores the cultural underpinnings of foreign policy and the role of culture in international affairs by reviewing the historiography and examining the meaning of the word culture in the context of foreign relations In the second part contributors analyze culture as a tool of foreign policy They demonstrate how culture was instrumentalized for diplomatic goals and purposes in different historical periods and world regions The essays in the third part expand the state centered view and retrace informal cultural relations among nations and peoples This exploration of non state cultural interaction focuses on the role of science art religion and tourism The fourth part collects the findings and arguments of part one two and three to define a roadmap for further scholarly inquiry A group of commentators survey the preceding essays place them into a larger research context and address the question Where do we go from here The last and fifth part presents a selection of primary sources along with individual comments highlighting a new genre of resources scholars interested in culture and international relations can consult Handbook of International Social Work Lynne M. Healy, Rosemary J. Link, 2012 Global knowledge is increasingly essential for all aspects of social work Today s professionals respond to concerns including permeable borders the upheavals of war displaced workers natural disasters international adoption and human trafficking Everywhere social workers work with service users and colleagues from diverse cultures and countries Globally relevant concepts such as human rights development and inclusion offer new perspectives to enhance policy and practice and facilitate the international exchange of ideas This handbook is the first major reference text to provide a solid foundation of knowledge for students and researchers alike The extensive collection of 73 chapters confirms the integral and necessary nature of international social work knowledge to all areas of practice policy and research Chapters systematically map the key issues organizations competencies training and research needs and ethical guidelines central to international social work practice today emphasizing the linkages among social work development and human rights practice In depth country case studies and policy examples encourage readers to understand how their practice in social work touches on international issues regardless of whether the work is done at home or abroad Representing all regions of the world a wide range of contributors that are leaders in their fields have put together an exhaustive collection that represents the state of play of international social work today

Transnational Encounters? Andrea Ciampani, Thomas Kroll, 2025-05-19 In the decades around 1900 there was a real boom in the establishment of nongovernmental international organizations in Europe Their congresses debated a wide range of scientific political and social problems that had arisen with the industrial development and the dynamics of internationalization since the 1880s The elites that were engaged in the meetings of international organizations reacted to sociopolitical or economic change and developed new concepts for societal reform The nation remained central to the world views of these elites and to the professional or political careers of their members Internationalism and nationalism were closely linked in the decades before World War I This shaped also their relations with national governments the concrete forms of internal cooperation of international associations and even the specific sociability of the transnational meetings of the elites The contributions in this volume deal with the elites and encounters of various types of international organizations

Brotherhood of the Sea Stephen Schwartz, 2020-03-06 In 1934 the Pacific Coast was shaken by a massive strike of waterfront workers on the docks and the ships In this mighty struggle the Sailor s Union of the Pacific quiescent since it s defeat in the period after the first World War was reborn Fighting on San Francisco s Embarcadero led to the stationing of National Guard troops on the front This book looks at the Union from 1885 to 1985 The Oxford Handbook of Oral History Donald A. Ritchie,2011 The Oxford Handbook of Oral History brings together 40 authors on five continents to address the evolution of oral history the impact of digital technology the most recent methodological and archival issues and the application of oral history to both scholarly research and public presentations Apostles of Revolution? Marxism and Biblical Studies Christina Petterson,2020-04-20 In Apostles of Revolution Marxism and Biblical Studies Christina Petterson sheds light on the collaboration between Biblical studies and liberal ideology Marxist analysis of the bible is spreading but clarity about what constitutes Marxist readings and Marxist categories of analysis is lacking a lack of clarity compounded by the different strands within Marxist politics and its subtle resonances in biblical scholarship The author examines the interplay between Biblical studies and liberal ideology in two ways First by presenting and discussing some of the central Marxist categories of analysis namely history ideology and class and how these categories have been co opted into biblical studies and in the process lost their radical edge Second by discussing the emergence of the discipline of biblical studies during the Enlightenment and to what extent the containment strategies of biblical studies overlap with those of capitalism Bringing the World into Focus Michel Listenberger OD FVI,2017-04-24 This is a story of struggle and triumph as visionaries overcome barriers to bring sight to others who cannot see The joys and tears of volunteers are shared in stories of what drives their passions toward a life changing causegiving the gift of sight Bringing the World into Focus is about Volunteer Optometric Services to Humanity from its beginnings in Kansas when two pilots flew their private planes to Mexico to its global outreach today of eighty one chapters and five thousand members providing eye care around the world Feasting on History James De Lorenzi,2025-07-15 During the brutal Italian occupation of Ethiopia 1936 1941 the country descended into endless counterinsurgency and mass violence which specifically targeted local intellectuals with the sanction of Italy s leading experts Yet these atrocities followed decades of dialogue between Ethiopian and Italian researchers and in the postcolonial era their successors continued to debate Ethiopia s past and future as survivors and perpetrators This historical reckoning unfolded against the backdrop of Third World liberation disputed colonial guilt and the search for postcolonial justice Feasting on History is a wide ranging intellectual history of the Italian Ethiopian relationship told through the intertwined lives of Heruy W ld Sellas an Ethiopian writer and civil servant and Enrico Cerulli an Italian Orientalist and colonial official It takes place on the battlefields and detention sites of fascist empire within the evolving institutions of the international system and throughout the interlinked intellectual worlds of Europe Africa and the African diaspora James De Lorenzi documents the violence perpetrated by experts across these spaces as well as the pioneering Ethiopian effort to address the crimes of empire through international law He also explores a distinctive European tradition of Africa focused Orientalism and its critical reception by Ethiopian African and Black American scholars reconstructing a bold multilingual commentary on colonial knowledge self determination and the global color line Challenging conventional narratives of African and European intellectual history Feasting on History vividly illuminates the links among weaponized research colonial trauma and the modern international order European Feminisms, 1700-1950 Karen M. Offen,2000 This ambitious book explores challenges to male hegemony throughout continental Europe over the past 250 years For general readers and those interested primarily in the historical record it provides a comprehensive comparative account of feminist developments in European societies as well as a rereading of European history from a feminist perspective By placing gender or relations between women and men at the center of European politics it aims to reconfigure our understanding of the European past and to make visible a long but neglected tradition of feminist thought and politics On another level the book seeks to disentangle some misperceptions and to demystify some confusing contemporary debates about the Enlightenment reason nature and public vs private equality vs difference In the process the author aims to show that gender is not merely a useful category of analysis but that sexual difference lies at the heart of human thought and politics Gender History in a Transnational Perspective Oliver Janz,Daniel Schönplug,2014-04-01 Recent debates have used the concept of transnational history to broaden research on historical subjects that transcend national boundaries and encourage a shift away from official inter state interactions to institutions groups and actors that have been obscured This approach proves particularly fruitful for the dynamic field of global gender and women s history By looking at the restless lives and work of women s activists in informal border crossings ephemeral NGOs the lower management of established international organizations and other global networks this volume reflects the potential of a new perspective that allows for a more adequate analysis of transnational activities By pointing out cultural hierarchies the vicissitudes of translation and re interpretation and the ambiguity of intercultural exchange this volume demonstrates the critical potential of transnational history It allows us to see the limits of universalist and cosmopolitan claims so dear to many historical actors and historians Contested Fields Alan McDougall,2020-01-29 Few cultural activities speak more powerfully to international histories of the modern world than football In the late nineteenth century this cheap and simple sport emerged as a major legacy of Britain s formal and informal empires and spread quickly across Europe South America and Africa Today football known to many as soccer is arguably the world s most popular pastime an activity played and watched by millions of people around the globe Contested Fields introduces readers to key aspects of the global game synthesizing research on football s transnational role in reflecting and shaping political socio economic and cultural developments over the past 150 years Each chapter uses case studies and cutting edge scholarship to analyze an important element of football s international story migration money competition gender race space spectatorship and confrontation Encyclopedia of British Football Richard William Cox,Dave Russell,Wray Vamplew,2002 This reference work aims to provide sports enthusiasts journalists librarians students and scholars with an authoritative source of information on a comprehensive range of subjects covering the history and organization of football in Britain Over 250 entries focus on key organisations or individuals famous clubs major competitions events venues and incidents institutions and organisations as well as key issues such as gender racism commercialization professionalism and drugs alcohol and football
